Blooming in the desert : favorite teachings of the wildflower monk / Taungpulu Tawya Kaba-Aye Sayadaw Phaya ; ed. by Anne Teich. – Berkeley, Calif.: North Atlantik Books, c1996. XLI, 90 p., illus., incl. bibliogr. ref.
 ISBN 1-55643-223-2
 Abstract: In 1978, at the age of 80, the Burmese forest monk Taungpulu Sayadaw left his native country for the first time and came to California, where he taught and established the West's first Burmese Buddhist temple and monastery. Revered as a saint in his lifetime and after his death in 1986, Taungpulu Sayadaw's calm, joyful presence, forged in a lifetime's dedication to the austere spiritual path of the Theravada forest tradition, was a beacon of hope to Burmese people in exile and a radiant example of living Buddhism for all who encountered him. This selection of the Sayadaw's favorite discourses, parables, chants, and meditations distills the essence of the fundamental Buddhist practices of mindfulness, non-attachment, and loving-kindness.

Democracy and development in Southeast Asia : the winds of change / Clark D. Neher ; Ross Marlay. - Boulder, Colo.: Westview Pr., 1995. XX, 220 p., illus., map, index, bibliogr. p. 203-210.

ISBN 0813319846 (hd.) ; 0813319854 (pbk.)

Contents 1. The Concept of Democracy - 2. Asian-Style Democracy - 3. Thailand - 4. The Philippines - 5. Indonesia - 6. Malaysia - 7. Burma - 8. Singapore and Brunei - 9. Vietnam and Laos - 10. Cambodia - 11. Democracy and Development.

Abstract: Exploring the remarkable political and economic changes sweeping Southeast Asia, the authors take as their starting point the trend - albeit uneven - toward democratization. They focus specifically on "Asian democracy," a form that has been adapted by Southeast Asians to suit their own particular needs. This book begins by building a framework for understanding democracy in its broadest sense. The authors investigate the uniquely Asian style of democracy, which borrows democratic political institutions and meshes them with the cultural patterns specific to each country. In separate chapters, the authors trace the evolutionary historical processes within each country as well as citizen participation, electoral practices, and civil liberties. The chapters end with an assessment of the prospects for democracy in that nation as well as an evaluation of whether democratic regimes are necessary for developing successful economies and societies in the new international era.

Abstract: Now in its third edition, this text continues to meet the need for a comprehensive assessment of Southeast Asia - both on a regional and country-by-country basis - in the changing global context. In this new edition, Clark Neher has updated all statistics and revised illustrative examples and concluding remarks for each chapter to indicate new directions, patterns, and prospects.

Abstract: Orwell's Politics is a study of George Orwell's political ideas and beliefs from his time as a policeman in Burma through to the publication of Nineteen Eighty-Four. It places Orwell's politics in historical context, examining his response to imperialism, to mass unemployment in the 1930s, to revolution in Spain and to the Second World War and its aftermath. The book considers Orwell's belief that socialist revolution was the only road to victory in wartime Britain. It discusses his time at the BBC and at the leftwing Labour newspaper Tribune. Particular attention is paid to Orwell's American connection, to his writings for Partisan Review and for Politics. Orwell's belief that Russia had nothing in common with socialism is discussed and new sources for Nineteen Eighty-Four are identified. The book also discusses recent feminist critiques of Orwell's politics. Newsinger demonstrates that, while Orwell's political beliefs inevitably changed over the years, he remained a committed socialist up to the time of his death. Orwell's anti-Stalinism was a consequence of his socialism rather than a repudiation of it. - Book jacket.

Tales from the King's African Rifles : a last flourish of empire /
 by John Nunneley. – Petersham: Askari Books, 1998.
 VIII, 213 p., illus., ports., maps, bibliogr. p. 212 to 213.
 ISBN 0-9534600-1-0 ; 0-9534600-0-2 (pbk)

Note: When he was just 19, officer John Nunneley arrived in Kenya to join the King's African Rifles, a famous colonial regiment. He first led his askaris in Africa and then in Burma's Kabow Valley--otherwise known as the "Valley of Death"--where they fought Japan's elite White Tigers.
 Nunneley's emotionally searing memoir captures a vanished world, as well as the terror of battling a fierce enemy in close quarters...in a jungle that literally drove men out of their minds. "Enthralling...vivid and compelling ... fearlessly honest and powerfully told." - William Boyd.
