

Amrita Bazar Patrika

BI-WEEKLY EDITION---PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AND SUNDAY.

VOL XXXVI

CALCUTTA, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1905

NO 712

GRAMOPHONES. WITH TAPERED ARM. For Rs. 82-8.

No. 3, Gramophone Rs. 22-8. Triple spring Gramophone Rs. 150. We are now registering orders for new Bengal records which will arrive by the end of this month. New List sent to Mofussil gentlemen post free.

MULLICK BROTHERS. (Tailors & Outfitters) AGENTS:—Gramophones & Typewriter Ltd. 2, Upper Chitpur Road, Jorasanko, Calcutta.

IMPORTANT NOTICE THE BUYERS OF MOHIN FLUTES Beware of the worthless imitations. THE MOHIN FLUTE

Awarded Gold Medal at the Calcutta Industrial Exhibition. PLEASE LOOK AT THE SPELLING.

MOHIN BROS. and also the photo of the inventor ON THE INSTRUMENT. It having appeared that the public are deceived by some unprincipled trader offering WORTHLESS IMITATION. MOHIN BROS. beg most respectfully to CAUTION the PUBLIC that genuine MOHIN FLUTE can be had only from MOHIN BROS. Nos. 3 and 4 Lower Chitpore Road, Calcutta.

Price of the Mohin Flutes

Mohin flute 3 octave 3 stops F to F	Rs. 35
Do. superior mellow tone gold mounted best finish	40
Mohin flute 3 octave 4 stops 2 sets Reeds	45
Do. Superior	70
Organ Mohin Flute a set 4 stops 2 set Reeds	7
Organ Mohin Flute 2 1/2 set 5 stop	Do. 25
Mohin flute 3 1/2 oct 5 stops	100
Do 3 1/2 octave 6 stops 3 sets Reeds	150
Do of minute folding 3 octave 3 stops	70
Do 3 1/2 octave 4 stops 2 sets Reeds	90
Do 3 1/2 octave 5 stops	Do.

Catalogues free on application.

THAT RENOWNED SWAMI DHARMANADA MAHABHARATI

who has studied both European and Indian Chemistry and has got some knowledge in testing the medicine properties of drugs and Pharmaceutical preparations, and on examining our VIGOR PILLS, writes to us that

"In chemical process of both the system it is found to be the best and most efficacious medicine of the kind," and that

Vigor Pills

BRING ABOUT MARVELLOUS RESULT

In Physical Lassitude, Nervous Debility, Prostration, Wasting Diseases and Convalescent.

WELL-KNOWN AMERICAN MISSIONARY

Of Calcutta who is thoroughly bred up in medical science, took some VIGOR PILLS from the Swami and on testing the merits and actions declares

"It is an excellent pill for Nervous Debility and Wasting Diseases."

SOME YOUNG SCHOOL AND COLLEGE STUDENTS:

Being advised by the Swami, used the VIGOR PILLS and 95 percent of them have spoken too highly of the Pills.

DR. MODHOOSOODUN COOPTO

Of Moradpore, Patna writes:—"Your VIGOR PILLS is an excellent medicine for nervous Debility. It improves the Appetite and promotes Digestion. It cures Acidity, Flatulence and Diarrhoea. It is also a good medicine of Sleeplessness. Kindly send one phial more to complete my cure."

PRICE RS. 2 PER PHIAL. Manager, Bharat Vaisajyanilaya, 41, Bagbarat Street, Calcutta.

BWARE OF IMITATIONS OF PAUL & SONS

GENUINE MOHON FLUTE-HARMONIUM.

Guaranteed for 3 years and the only original, genuine and best harmonium in the market. When purchasing please look at the spelling of the word MOHON—our Registered Trade Mark and the name of PAUL & SONS in bright gold, without which none is genuine.

PRICES
No. 1. To 1, 3 stops, Single reeds, in oak... Rs. 36
No. 3. C to C, 3 Stops, do ornamental case... Rs. 40
No. 5. Double reeds, 4 Stops... Rs. 60
No. 6. Do. Do. Superior... Rs. 65
All orders executed per V. P. P. On receipt of Rs. 5 in advance. Illustrated catalogues free on application to the sole Manufacturer

PAUL & SONS. LOWER CHITPUR ROAD, CALCUTTA

POWELL'S IODED COM. ESSENCE

Sarsaparilla or Blood and Liver Cleanser is the most effective combination of Iodised Compound Essence of Sarsaparilla.

A prompt and powerful alterative and Depurator acting directly upon the blood & Glandular System.

The distressing poison of Syphilis with its primary, secondary or tertiary symptoms is speedily relieved. It is of particular service in syphilitic Rheumatism, Chronic affections of the skin, Gout, Neuralgia, Scrofulous Diseases, Blisters Eruptions, Erisipelas, Female complaints, Goitre, Liver complaints and Pimples

It has the power of causing the elimination of Mercury from the system. This essence of Sarsaparilla will renew the arterial blood of putrid humour and the stomach regulate the bowels and impart a tone of health.

One trial will convince you of the utility of this medicine.

CAUTION—Always ask your Druggist for POWELL'S Iodised Compound Essence of Sarsaparilla and be sure you get the genuine which bears our Trade Mark.

Botle 1-10-0.

N. POWELL & CO Chemists, BYCULLA, BOMBAY.

ABRECHT & CO.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL WATCH MANUFACTURERS
17, 18, Radha Bazar, (HEAD OFFICE) 20, Lall Bazar, (BRANCH OFFICE)

CALCUTTA LATEST NOVELTIES IN LADIES' WATCHES. "Self-Closing" Bracelets. WILL FIT WRIST OF ANY SIZE

MOST COMFORTABLE IN WEAR FROM RS. 20 TO RS. 50.

VERY PRETTY LADIES' GOLD WATCHES. EXQUISITELY ENAMELED AND ENGRAVING CASES. FROM RS. 20 TO RS. 500.

The "Improved Lever" Wrist Watches! One Quality only "THE BEST"

Nickel case	... from Rs. 20-
Silver case	... " " 30-
Gold "	... " " 60-

All guaranteed 3 years.

See by V. P. P. to any part of India or Burmah, in a very fine case. With extra glass, spring and guarantee.

Repairs of every description done at the shortest notice.

MB—old Import of the Great Courtvoisier and Q. O's Watch

IN CEREBRAL DISORDER USE OUR WORLD FAMED KESHANJAN OIL THE BEST HAIR TONIC.

IT CURE BALDNESS; SOOT THE BRAIS REMOVE DANDRUFF; PRESERVES BEAUTIFIES AND RESTORES HAIR.

FOR THE HAIR Millions of India's best people use our WOLD-RENOWNED; KESHANJAN OIL.

It will stop falling hair. It will make you more resolute in brain-work. It will please the ladies of your household.

It will destory hair parasites. Price per phial Re 1. Packing and Postage As. 5 3. Phials Rs. 2-8, Packing and postage As. 11

Shawsarishta

OR THE SPECIFIC FOR ASTHMA.

OUR SHAWARSISHTA gives immediate relief and leaves permanent effects, bringing about in the end a radical cure. It brings out phlegm and induces sleep; it is the only balm in the life of an asthmatic patient.

It cures Asthma with bloody spatum coldness of extremities, extreme sense of suffocation and shortness of breath, &c., &c., even in chronic cases it has wonderful effects.

Price per phial with one box of pills Rs. 1-3 packing and postage As. 7.

A Provision of ten Thousand

Was secured by a Gentleman who was at first dispirited of success owing to his extreme Nervous Debility. He used our RATIBILAS, the great Nerve Tonic, for 4 weeks and made himself strong enough to undergo the proper medical examination. The Doctor who first gave a very wrong opinion about his health now gave him a good certificate which secured for him the Policy for Rupees Ten Thousands. Sufferer from Nervous Debility of any description must take a lesson from this successful case.

Price:—Two boxes of pills and one phial of Oil (to last for a fortnight) Rs. 4 Packing and postage ... As. 10

Kabiraj NAGENDRA NATH SEN, GOVT. MEDICAL DIPLOMA HOLDER, 18-f & 19 Lower Chitpur Road, Calcutta.

Kuntaline.

A delightful Perfumed Oil for Preserving and Beautifying the Hair. It has already acquired an extensive sale all over India and has been a great favourite with the Ladies of our country. It is the purest and the finest Perfume and the most efficacious Hair Grower in the market and you can not obtain a better hair oil for ten times the money.

Sweet Scented	... As. 10
Lily Scented	... " 10
Rose Scented	... " 10
Jasmin Scented	... " 10

Delkhosh

Presents in a liquid form the sweet and charming odour of thousands of fresh blooming flowers. In Sweetness, Delicacy, and Permanency of the Fragrance, it is really delightful and is unequalled by any Essence imported from Europe. A few drops on your handkerchief will fill the atmosphere with a delightful and fascinating perfume which will last for days.

Price per Bottle one Rupee only, Tambuline.

It is a novel and charming preparation composed of the finest Genuine Musk, Otto of Roses, and some other new and valuable Aromatics and Spices for imparting a rich and delicious taste to the Betel. A few grains of this Powder taken with the betel will wonderfully improve its taste and flavour. Betel used will find it a necessity and a luxury indeed.

Price per Bottle Eight Annas only.

H. BOSE, Perfumer.

62, Bow Bazar Street, CALCUTTA. Telegraphic Address, 62, Bow Bazar Street, CALCUTTA, Delkhose Calcutta.

REPORTS OF CRIMINAL CASES BETWEEN EUROPEANS AND INDIANS.

Price to Subscribers Re. 1 only to non-Subscribers Re. 1-8. For further particulars apply for a free copy of the Indian Empire new, 2pc "INDIAN EMPIRE" Price CALCUTTA.

Grand Clearance Sale. BUKSH LAHE. Watch and Clock maker and Jeweller.

136, Radha Bazar, Calcutta. All watches are guaranteed for three years.

PACKING AND POSTAGE CHARGES ARE FREE	PACKING AND POSTAGE CHARGES ARE FREE
--------------------------------------	--------------------------------------

1 Nickel Silver, open face, keyless Watch	Rs. 3 8
2 Silver case, Open Face Watch	4 0
3 Roskopf Lever Fancy Dial Watch	4 8
4 Roskopf Lever Open face keyless Watch	6 8
5 Nickel Silver, Open face, keyless Watch	9 8
6 Silver, Open face, wrist watch, with a strap	5 0
7 Nickel Silver, wrist watch, with a strap	6 8
8 Gold wrist watch with a strap	19 8
9 German silver, hunting key winding watch	5 8
10 Silver hunting, key winding watch	8 12
11 Silver, hunting Lever watch	12 8
12 Silver half-hunting Lever watch	14 8
13 Silver, Open Face 8 days keyless Lever	18 8
14 Silver hunting " " " " " "	22 0
15 Silver hunting " " " " " "	22 0

Purchaser of every three watches of any number will get a watch of the same number free of cost. Harmonium single reed 3 Stoppers, 1 side, Rs. 28. One Nickel-silver, Open Face watch will be given free of cost with the instrument. Harmonium Double reeds, 4 Stoppers Rs. 48. One Silver watch will be given free of cost with the instrument. Real Pebble spectacles from Rs. 3-8 to Rs. 18. Orders for Harmonium must in every case accompany with 1/4th of the actual price of the instrument

Our Family is renowned as the Physician for 200 years past of H. H. the Jam Saheb of Jamanagar

Madan Manjari Pills !!!

PERFECTLY harmless and most wholesome native medicine. These tonic pills purify the blood, invigorate the nerves, rebuild the broken down constitution and give a most healthful tone to the whole system. For loss of memory and appetite, losses in sleep and with dreams, and for all sorts of urinary complaints, these are the safest and the sweetest remedy. In short, they are a boon to the doomed, a hope to the hopeless and sure of a cure. Re. 1 for 40 Pills.

Napunshakatwari Ghril !!!

This ointment is an invaluable remedy for impotency. It effects so prompt and permanent a cure all those who have used it that thousands of un-solicited testimonials as to the wonderful curative powers are pouring in from all quarters every year. Re. 1 for 2 Toias.

RAJVAIDYA NARAYANJI KESHAVI, Head Office—64 Jamanagar (Kadimani), Branch Office—Kalbadevi Road, Bombay

NITYANANDA AND NALIN KANTI BISWAS.

JEWELLERY PODDARY SHOP. Rampur-Bonla, Ghosamara, Bahadur.

All sorts of gold, silver and jewellery ornaments are kept ready for sale, and also made to order at a cheaper rates than others. Confident of the superior quality of the articles and moderate prices at which they are sold, I invite comparison and challenge competition. For particulars see illustrated catalogue, Price 6 annas including postage. Customers buying ornaments worth Rs. 100 will get a catalogue free of cost. DEAR SIR,—The ornaments which you have supplied to me on order on the occasion of my daughter's marriage, have all been of approved design and of neat workmanship. I cannot but too highly recommend the promptitude with which my order was complied with. Thanking you for the same and wishing you success, I remain (Sd.) Kedar Nath Sanyal, Ex. Asst. Commr. Habiganj, Sylhet. Dated 3rd January 1890. Babu Nityananda Biswas of Rampur-Boallah has executed my orders with great promptness, and the workmanship he has exhibited is highly creditable. He is, as far as I am able to judge, honest and fully deserves encouragement and patronage. He is trustworthy in his dealings with his customers. Dated 4-2-90. (Sd.) Nil Kant Majumder, Presidency College.

CONSIDER YOUR HEALTH!

When you consider how much depends upon it, what can be more important to you than the state of your health? If you are in trouble with bad or indifferent health, your capacities for work or pleasure are affected—even your life is threatened. Thousands of people known by old experience that are a blessing in the household and in every country of the world. No other medicine exercises a more marked control over BILIOUSNESS.

Beecham's Pills

SICK-HEADACHE, INDIGESTION, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, CONSTIPATION

And other painful forms of stomachic trouble. BEECHAM'S PILLS are good alike for man, woman, and child, if taken according to directions. They are pre-eminently a family medicine—a remedy to have by one in readiness for every occasion whether need arises.

There is yet another point in this connection that you should mark on the tablet of your memory. BEECHAM'S PILLS, in addition to their acknowledged value in Kidney, Liver and stomach Disorders, have a specially beneficial effect in such ailments as are peculiar to women, many of whom endure needless pain and ill health through ignorance of this important fact.

6,000,000 BOXES SOLD ANNUALLY. In boxes, annas 4, annas 8, 12 annas and Rs. 2 each.

Prepared only by the Proprietor, THOS. BEECHAM, St. HELENS, LANCASHIRE. Beecham's Music Portfolio. The cheapest and best Collection of Music in the World

BOMBAY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

ADDRESS TO LORD CURZON.

HIS REPLY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Viceroy's Camp, Bombay, Nov. 8. In reply to the address presented to Lord Curzon by the Chamber of Commerce...

efficient agency for guiding it, namely, the creation of the Railway Board. It would be absurd to pretend that this idea was mine...

domic and industrial prospects of this country. I suppose we shall never be free from the chantings of that dismal chorus...

CO-RESPONDENCE.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

An Open Truth.—Anonymous.

A LAMENTATION.

To The Editor.

Sir,—The news that the Lieutenant-Governor stopped at Khargpur to inspect the site of the proposed headquarters of the new district of South Midnapur...

district being rich and more populous I think their houses will come up to about half of the houses comprised in the present town...

THE PERILS OF INDIAN POSTMEN.

In the annual report on the Indian Post Office for 1904-05 the following paragraphs occur:— There were twelve highway robberies of the mail during the year as compared with eighteen in the previous year...

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC.

"SOLD TO CHINESE." Forty-nine American and Canadian young women have been sold into what is practically a state of slavery in China...

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IN OLD VIRGINIA.

The Hutchinson Drug Company, which is located at Perry, Oklahoma, U. S. A., in speaking of the sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy...

DO NOT BE INFLUENCED.

Never hesitate to say "No" to your dealer if he offers you a substitute for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy...

HAPPILY SURPRISED.

Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted at the prompt relief obtained by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm...

SORE MUSCLES.

Prominent athletes throughout the country find that the best treatment for sore muscles after severe exercise or hard work of any kind...

ALL CHEMISTS AND STOREKEEPERS PRICE 1 Rs. 2 Rs.

ALL CHEMISTS AND STOREKEEPERS PRICE 1 Rs. 2 Rs.

Amrita Bazar Patrika

CALCUTTA, NOVEMBER 12, 1905.

FURTHER ANALYSIS OF SIR A. FRASER'S EXPLANATION.

It is now quite clear that the so-called explanation of the Lieutenant-Governor on the anti-Swadeshi Circular has not improved the situation. On the other hand, in going to satisfy the public by an expression of his views, his honor has only added to their dissatisfaction, and placed himself in the most awkward position possible.

It is now an open secret that Sir Andrew Fraser considers the Circular to have been a great blunder. Such being the case, the only course open to him was to shelve the document. But no—he will not, and that for reasons which we need not enquire into.

Here is a sentence we quote from His Honor's explanation: "The circular regarding employment of schoolboys and students in connection with political agitation, which appeared originally in the 'Statesman,' was neither issued nor authorized by this Government."

If the circular was neither issued nor authorized by Government, how did it find its way to certain District Magistrates? That the circular was addressed to a number of District Officers cannot be denied. The Magistrate of Rungpur got one, and, what excellent use he has made of it, we all know.

The following communication from the Hon'ble Mr. Carlyle, dated October 30, in reply to a letter from Babu Bhupendra Nath Bose, throws further light on the subject:— "I have seen the circular in the 'Statesman.' I have not compared it with the one issued by Government, but it appears to be a reproduction of the circular issued by Government to District Magistrates.

The next day Mr. Carlyle came forward with a somewhat different statement. He said that his attention had been drawn to an additional paragraph in the 'Statesman's' circular which did not appear in the Government order. Of this later on. The following day the circular, which purported to be the one issued by the Government of Bengal, was sent to the press as an official communication and published in all the papers.

Let us now analyse the above. The Government of Bengal, C.I.E. Secretary to Government of Bengal.

To the Magistrate and Collector of Darjeeling, the 10th October, 1905. On the 15th and 16th of October, Mr. Carlyle met a number of leading Bengalee gentlemen in Calcutta and gave them to understand that such a circular had been issued. He was requested to postpone the matter, but he said the Government could not wait and had been obliged to adopt the repressive measure.

It will be observed that, though like the Carlyle circular, the proclamation has been issued ostensibly with the object of preventing any so-called disturbance of the Swadeshi movement. Some District Magistrates wrote privately to Sir Andrew or to Mr. Carlyle that students might create riots in their districts in advancing the Swadeshi cause, and the result is the circular of the Government of Bengal whereby pupils and their teachers are both to be punished for what nobody knows.

When certain District Magistrates reported to Sir Andrew that they apprehended mischief from the boys, His Honor should have fully satisfied himself as to the absolute correctness of the information before taking the serious step of issuing a circular which has convulsed the country. In the same manner, when somebody whispered in the ears of Mr. Fuller that some people had been circulating false rumours against the Government, he should have enquired into the matter thoroughly, and promulgated a proclamation of the kind he has done, only when a culprit had actually been produced.

Sir Andrew, we trust, has by this time been convinced that there is absolutely no foundation for the official report upon which he acted, namely, that the students in certain districts were turbulently disposed. It should have occurred to His Honor that when ten thousand students in Calcutta did not break the law on a single occasion though they roamed over its streets in an excited state of mind for months together, it was utterly impossible for their conferrers in the Muffassils, who were only a few hundreds in every district, and most of whom were, again school boys, to do anything which might cause a riot.

Mr. Fuller, in the same manner, has no doubt come to know by this time that no man ever said the Government had identified itself with the Swadeshi movement in order to injure the interests of Manchester. If anybody preached any such thing he would have been laughed at by the instruct his thana officers to report instances of misconduct on the part of boys of the nature indicated in the first paragraph above.

Now, we are told that, in the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor and Mr. Carlyle, this paragraph was added to the circular by some foolish Magistrate. The story goes, though we can't vouch for its absolute correctness—that it is suspected in high quarters that it was the doing of some Indian Magistrate. But is not this theory quite untenable? Just see. The paragraph begins with the words, 'The gentlemen to whom this circular letter is addressed, &c.' Now who are these "gentlemen" but if not the District Magistrates? For, the circular is addressed to none else but to certain Magistrates. District Magistrates, in short, are requested by the Government to explain the above, that is, the contents of the first three paragraphs, to their subordinates or to Deputy Magistrates, &c. The paragraph must, therefore, have emanated from the Secretariat, and not from any foolish District Magistrate. No other construction is possible upon it.

We very much wish that Sir Andrew had not sought an opportunity of expressing his views on the subject through "a member of his Council," for if he had remained silent, people would not have connected him with the circular. But now, they cannot help thinking, he is entirely in the hands of his subordinates who can lead him in any direction they like. The circular, even as it stands, is fraught with mischief. But we shall discuss this point in a future issue.

THE LYON PROCLAMATION.

If Mr. Carlyle is the Chief Secretary to Sir Andrew Fraser, Mr. Lyon is the Chief Secretary to the Hon'ble Mr. Fuller, and ruler of Eastern Bengal. So, when Mr. Carlyle has his anti-Swadeshi circular, why should not Mr. Lyon have his proclamation too? Both are equally mischievous and both have the same object in view, namely to check the Swadeshi movement by a clever move. Here is a free translation of the document which is written in the Bengalee language. It has been circulated in Jalpaiguri, and is on its way to every district in Mr. Fuller's province:—

PROCLAMATION. "It has come to the knowledge of the Lieutenant-Governor that efforts are being made to create an impression in the public mind that it is the order of the Sarkar Bahadur that the people should purchase country-made goods instead of foreign. This rumour is false. The wish of the Government expressly is that anybody can buy another against his wish to buy country-made goods, and both have the same equally mischievous and both have the same object in view, namely to check the Swadeshi movement by a clever move.

On the 3rd of November the Head Master communicated the Magistrate's order to the students concerned, and on the 4th he carried it out without waiting for the Inspector's advice, and did not allow the boys to attend their classes because they had not paid the fines imposed, and forwarded the Magistrate's order to their guardians and parents. In reply to an enquiry from some of the guardians as to why the boys were fined, the Head Master wrote as follows on the 5th November:—

"For shooting 'Bande Mataram' on the public road after school hours." In reply to the Head Master's memo forwarding the Magistrate's order, some other guardians wrote to the Head Master inquiring for what fault or offence, if any, this order of fine had been passed, and further requested him to see the order reconsidered as they were aware that the boys had done nothing deserving of any punishment. Subjoined is a verbatim copy of the letter:—

"To the Head Master of the Rungpur Zillah School. 'Sir,—In reply to your memo dated the 4th instant forwarding to me a copy of an order purporting to have been passed by the Magistrate of Rungpur by which the student (name of the student) has been fined Rs. 5 and has further been prohibited from attending his class until the fine has been paid (and as a matter of fact the student was not allowed to remain in his class as he had not paid the fine) and which further states that the repetition of the offence will endanger the existence of the school, I have the honour to state, that it is a matter of regret that neither the order itself nor your memo mentions for what fault or offence the boy has been punished. I therefore request the favour of your kindly informing me, in continuation of your memo mentioned above, the offence for which the boy has been fined. This is essentially necessary for my 'guidance'. So far as I am aware the boy has not done anything deserving of any punishment. I therefore request that you will kindly see that the matter is reconsidered."

The Head Master, it appears, acting as a direct subordinate of the District Magistrate, forwarded the letter of the guardians to the District Magistrate who passed the following order thereon:— "The boys have been fined for attending a political meeting and shouting in public on the road and maidan." It should be noted here that the description of the offence of the boys as given by the Head Master is quite different from that given by the Magistrate. The Head Master communicated this order to some of the guardians on the 6th of November. The result of this unwarrantable procedure of the District Magistrate and the unbecoming subservience of the Head Master to the District officer has been that the guardians of the boys who have been fined have not allowed the boys to attend the school, and the guardians of the boys, who have not been fined, apprehending similar treatment, have thought it proper to keep away their wards from the school, which at present seems to be a criminal court for summary convictions without trial. Out of about 350 boys on the rolls of the Zillah school, only 32 attended on the 7th, and the guardians of some of these are Zillah schoolmasters and Government servants.

56 boys of the local Technical school have been similarly fined. They too, following the example of the Zillah school boys, have ceased attending their school. There are about 100 boys on the rolls of the Technical school, but none attended the school on the 7th November.

As the reader is aware, the now-notorious Carlyle circular, as published in the 'Statesman', being neither issued nor authorised by the Government, to quote the words of Sir Andrew, "does not, therefore, authorize any District Magistrate to take any action upon it. Besides, there is no provision in the circular empowering the Magistrate to fine any schoolboy for 'attending public meetings' and 'shouting in public streets and maidan.'" Further the Head Master is not bound and authorized to realize the fine in the way directed by the District Magistrate. So it was illegality and high-handedness all along the line. The Magistrate ousted the educational authorities and usurped their functions, and the poor Head Master tremblingly carried out every order he passed.

The latest information is that Dr. Purnananda Chatterjee, the Divisional Inspector of Schools, arrived at Rungpur four or five days ago and has since been frequently conferring on the subject with the Magistrate. On the 7th instant the Magistrate, of his own motion, remitted the fines of those boys whose guardians are Government employes. As regards the sons or wards of independent gentlemen he expressed a wish to remit their fines too, if their guardians gave an undertaking to the effect that their wards would no longer join any political meetings. None agreed to this condition. On the same day there was a mass meeting on the maidan adjoining the Collector's Office to consider what steps might be taken. -abu Sachindra Prosad Bose, we are told, made a most effective speech. The District Magistrate was observed to be watching the demonstration from the public road. The boys took a vow at the meeting never again to read in a Government School. A new school was started the next day, and several pleaders have volunteered their services as teachers. The Magistrate is said to be yet defiant. All this we owe to Mr. Carlyle's circular which has been so warmly supported by Sir Andrew Fraser in his explanation.

people, and the police would have pounced upon him. Indeed, if the police cannot catch thieves, they are past masters in hauling up innocent men and harassing them. But, imagine the character of the mischief which the Lyon Proclamation, based upon a mere rumour, is calculated to do. The police have been openly directed to molest people who, in their opinion, might ask others to abstain from the use of foreign goods against their wish. A subtler way of injuring the Swadeshi movement could not have been conceived. We trust, however, the movement, the sole object of which is to develop the industries of the country, will survive these ungenerous attempts of the authorities to smother it.

THE RUNGPUR STUDENTS' CASE.

Now to the students' case at Rungpur. The public are not yet in full possession of the facts. The story we are about to relate will thus prove intensely interesting to the reader. The Head Master of the Rungpur Zillah School promulgated the following circular on the 31st October last:— Circular No. 108.

Notice is hereby given that if any attempt is made by any boy of the Rungpur Zillah school to take any action in connection with boy-cutting, picketing and other abuses, his case will be reported to the Inspector of Schools, Rajshaye Division, for punishment. Every assistant teacher is requested to explain to the boys that such a practice is absolutely subversive of discipline, and most injurious to their interests and studies. He is also requested to see, both in the school and out of the school, that the boys do not meet together for such purpose or disturb the peace by taking any part in boy-cotting movement. If there be any fear of such disturbance the name of the boys should be reported to the undersigned. (Sd.) A. K. Ghosh, Head Master."

It is understood that this circular is based on the confidential circular No. 1879 P.—D. of Mr. Carlyle, Offg. Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, which was forwarded to the Head Master by the District Magistrate, without any authority or sanction, according to Sir A. Fraser. On the 2nd of November, the Head Master received the following order from the District Magistrate, presumably passed on a letter written by the former in reply to a communication from the District Magistrate:—

"These boys are fined Rs. 5 each and are not allowed to attend classes again until the fine has been paid. Head Master to warn them that repetition of this offence will endanger the existence of this school and to send a copy of this to their parents."

Rungpur Magistrate, T. Emerson." The Head Master finding that the rules of the Education Department did not permit him to carry out the Magistrate's order sent a telegram to the Divisional Inspector of Schools to the following effect:— "66 boys shouted 'Bande Mataram' along the public roads. Magistrate fines them Rs. 5 each without any judicial trial and orders not to allow them in the class until the fine is paid. Wire advice."

On the 3rd of November the Head Master communicated the Magistrate's order to the students concerned, and on the 4th he carried it out without waiting for the Inspector's advice, and did not allow the boys to attend their classes because they had not paid the fines imposed, and forwarded the Magistrate's order to their guardians and parents. In reply to an enquiry from some of the guardians as to why the boys were fined, the Head Master wrote as follows on the 5th November:—

"For shooting 'Bande Mataram' on the public road after school hours." In reply to the Head Master's memo forwarding the Magistrate's order, some other guardians wrote to the Head Master inquiring for what fault or offence, if any, this order of fine had been passed, and further requested him to see the order reconsidered as they were aware that the boys had done nothing deserving of any punishment. Subjoined is a verbatim copy of the letter:—

"To the Head Master of the Rungpur Zillah School. 'Sir,—In reply to your memo dated the 4th instant forwarding to me a copy of an order purporting to have been passed by the Magistrate of Rungpur by which the student (name of the student) has been fined Rs. 5 and has further been prohibited from attending his class until the fine has been paid (and as a matter of fact the student was not allowed to remain in his class as he had not paid the fine) and which further states that the repetition of the offence will endanger the existence of the school, I have the honour to state, that it is a matter of regret that neither the order itself nor your memo mentions for what fault or offence the boy has been punished. I therefore request the favour of your kindly informing me, in continuation of your memo mentioned above, the offence for which the boy has been fined. This is essentially necessary for my 'guidance'. So far as I am aware the boy has not done anything deserving of any punishment. I therefore request that you will kindly see that the matter is reconsidered."

The Head Master, it appears, acting as a direct subordinate of the District Magistrate, forwarded the letter of the guardians to the District Magistrate who passed the following order thereon:— "The boys have been fined for attending a political meeting and shouting in public on the road and maidan." It should be noted here that the description of the offence of the boys as given by the Head Master is quite different from that given by the Magistrate. The Head Master communicated this order to some of the guardians on the 6th of November. The result of this unwarrantable procedure of the District Magistrate and the unbecoming subservience of the Head Master to the District officer has been that the guardians of the boys who have been fined have not allowed the boys to attend the school, and the guardians of the boys, who have not been fined, apprehending similar treatment, have thought it proper to keep away their wards from the school, which at present seems to be a criminal court for summary convictions without trial. Out of about 350 boys on the rolls of the Zillah school, only 32 attended on the 7th, and the guardians of some of these are Zillah schoolmasters and Government servants.

56 boys of the local Technical school have been similarly fined. They too, following the example of the Zillah school boys, have ceased attending their school. There are about 100 boys on the rolls of the Technical school, but none attended the school on the 7th November.

As the reader is aware, the now-notorious Carlyle circular, as published in the 'Statesman', being neither issued nor authorised by the Government, to quote the words of Sir Andrew, "does not, therefore, authorize any District Magistrate to take any action upon it. Besides, there is no provision in the circular empowering the Magistrate to fine any schoolboy for 'attending public meetings' and 'shouting in public streets and maidan.'" Further the Head Master is not bound and authorized to realize the fine in the way directed by the District Magistrate. So it was illegality and high-handedness all along the line. The Magistrate ousted the educational authorities and usurped their functions, and the poor Head Master tremblingly carried out every order he passed.

The latest information is that Dr. Purnananda Chatterjee, the Divisional Inspector of Schools, arrived at Rungpur four or five days ago and has since been frequently conferring on the subject with the Magistrate. On the 7th instant the Magistrate, of his own motion, remitted the fines of those boys whose guardians are Government employes. As regards the sons or wards of independent gentlemen he expressed a wish to remit their fines too, if their guardians gave an undertaking to the effect that their wards would no longer join any political meetings. None agreed to this condition. On the same day there was a mass meeting on the maidan adjoining the Collector's Office to consider what steps might be taken. -abu Sachindra Prosad Bose, we are told, made a most effective speech. The District Magistrate was observed to be watching the demonstration from the public road. The boys took a vow at the meeting never again to read in a Government School. A new school was started the next day, and several pleaders have volunteered their services as teachers. The Magistrate is said to be yet defiant. All this we owe to Mr. Carlyle's circular which has been so warmly supported by Sir Andrew Fraser in his explanation.

school, but none attended the school on the 7th November.

As the reader is aware, the now-notorious Carlyle circular, as published in the 'Statesman', being neither issued nor authorised by the Government, to quote the words of Sir Andrew, "does not, therefore, authorize any District Magistrate to take any action upon it. Besides, there is no provision in the circular empowering the Magistrate to fine any schoolboy for 'attending public meetings' and 'shouting in public streets and maidan.'" Further the Head Master is not bound and authorized to realize the fine in the way directed by the District Magistrate. So it was illegality and high-handedness all along the line. The Magistrate ousted the educational authorities and usurped their functions, and the poor Head Master tremblingly carried out every order he passed.

The latest information is that Dr. Purnananda Chatterjee, the Divisional Inspector of Schools, arrived at Rungpur four or five days ago and has since been frequently conferring on the subject with the Magistrate. On the 7th instant the Magistrate, of his own motion, remitted the fines of those boys whose guardians are Government employes. As regards the sons or wards of independent gentlemen he expressed a wish to remit their fines too, if their guardians gave an undertaking to the effect that their wards would no longer join any political meetings. None agreed to this condition. On the same day there was a mass meeting on the maidan adjoining the Collector's Office to consider what steps might be taken. -abu Sachindra Prosad Bose, we are told, made a most effective speech. The District Magistrate was observed to be watching the demonstration from the public road. The boys took a vow at the meeting never again to read in a Government School. A new school was started the next day, and several pleaders have volunteered their services as teachers. The Magistrate is said to be yet defiant. All this we owe to Mr. Carlyle's circular which has been so warmly supported by Sir Andrew Fraser in his explanation.

The following sensational telegram comes from Rungpur:— Rungpur, Nov. 10.

Babu Bepin Ch. Pal is expected here tomorrow. The following mandate has been issued by the Magistrate this evening: "Notice is given that without the permission of the District Magistrate, no public meeting is to be held on Government and District Board land. Applications for permission should state the object of the meeting and should guarantee that no schoolboys are to be present at the meeting. On disobedience to this order the meeting will be dispersed by the police. The unseemly conduct of persons attending a meeting held on Government land recently, has made this order necessary."

When rulers of provinces and higher officials have lost their heads, what can be expected from the smaller fry? Mr. Carlyle has an anti-Swadeshi circular, and Mr. Lyon has his too. Similarly, Mr. Halliday, the Police Commissioner of Calcutta, issued an order that his police would disperse any public meeting held on the Maidan. Why, then, should not Mr. Emerson, the Magistrate of Rungpur, do the same thing? But does the land adjoining the collectorate belong to Mr. Emerson? Did he inherit it from his father, or did he bring money from England to purchase it? Just see how foolish the order is. Suppose they hold a meeting at another place and snap their fingers at the Magistrate, what can he do to them? The people of Rungpur have taken a serious responsibility upon themselves. Of course, they must, on no account, break the law and foment a quarrel with the authorities, but they must not, at the same time, allow themselves to be cowed down by these empty and senseless threats of the District Officer. They should see it the order of the Magistrate is legal or not. If legal they must not hold any meeting at the prohibited place, but, if illegal, they must fight the matter out in law courts. By the way, we find in the 'Eastern Bengal and Assam Gazette' that Mr. Emerson has been transferred to Rajshaye. So, his rajgee at Rungpur is at an end.

The following extract from a Report of Mr. Russel, Assistant Director of Public Instruction appeared in the 'Sanjibani' newspaper of December 8th, 1904:— "In order to learn something of the conditions under which students live in messes, and of the extent to which the rules issued by Government (Bengal Government Notification No. 1375 T.—D., dated 29th September 1900 and subsequent modifications) are practically operative, I have visited 33 messes and two hostels. The result of the inquiries I have made is the reverse of satisfactory."

"Except in the two hostels (which appear to be as well conducted as under present conditions could be expected), there has apparently been no attempt to carry out either the letter or the spirit of the Government rules. In practically all the private messes they seem to have been wholly disregarded. Thus out of the 33 visited, only two or three claimed to have been licensed (in 1903) by the Municipality. Only two appeared to have been visited (within the last two years) by any college authority. I did not find in any of them a written license from a college principal; not one had either a Conduct Register, or an Attendance Register, or a Visitors' Book. Most of them had no rules at all, but only certain understood conditions in regard to the payment of messing charges etc. I only came across a single written rule which could be described as of a disciplinary character. This was to the effect that any boarder who was guilty of shameful misconduct should be 'liable to leave the mess,' but it was added that in such case he should not be permitted to leave until he had provided a substitute. I did not investigate the sanitation of the messes visited; but in some cases no investigation was required to detect insanitary conditions."

"It is plain that in the life of these students, outside the college lecture-room, there is no semblance whatever of order, discipline or authority; and the amount of evil for which this state of things is responsible would, I am afraid, be difficult to exaggerate. Apart from the feebleness of character, slovenliness and incompetence which shows itself in their college work and is the natural outcome of a slipshod and wholly undisciplined mode of life, there are positive moral evils of a more serious nature. Some of the messes are almost next door to brothels; and I have been told by a trustworthy person of instances where students for the sake of economy have actually lived in brothels. The servants employed in the messes,

I am told, are commonly women of loose character. That evil of this kind is deplorably prevalent among Calcutta students cannot, I am afraid, be doubted; and its physical consequences are most serious. Every Professor notices remarkable want of life and spirit in his senior classes as compared with boys in their first year. It is to be feared that evil of this type can never be combated with any hope of complete success in town like Calcutta, but the enforcement of a stringent discipline and control might do much to narrow its area."

This unwarrantable libel on our student community was confidentially communicated to Government by Mr. Russel, the Assistant Director of Public Instruction; and although the Government took prompt action on it by requiring the Director to frame rules and regulations based on his Assistant's report, the public would not have known anything of it but for the knowledge of the 'Sanjibani.' When it thus attracted public notice, a committee, formed of Dr. Nirritan Sircar, Babu Satish Chandra Mukherjee and Mr. J. Chowdhury, took up the matter in right earnest. They visited a large number of messes, observed the habits and conduct of the boys on the spot, and obtained the good and bad points in the system and the opinions of a goodly number of representative gentlemen, who were in a 'position' to speak with authority on the subject. Below, in the form of questions and answers will be found the opinion of one of the parties thus consulted; and from it will be seen how very opposed were the statements of Mr. Russel to actual facts. Here is the paper of questions with answers:—

Re Old Mess system.

1. Do you think there were any definite evils connected with the old mess system? No, I do not think there were any, except in so far as the entire absence of control was itself an evil.

2. If so, what were the serious evils? None. There was probably a want of method in the arrangements. Cleanliness and sanitation may not always have been studied. But these are not among serious evils.

3. Is the joint responsibility method of management in the main successful? In messes (as distinguished from hostels, of which there are few) the new method is much the same as the old, except that there is now occasional inspection by college or official authorities.

4. Have any seriously undesirable results come, as far as your experience goes, from the freedom of action and lack of regular supervision? None. The boys may have played at cards in a noisy fashion, or gone to witness sports, or see plays acted, but there are no undesirable results.

5. Is there ground for the statement that the majority of women-servants in messes are of loose character? No ground. The women-servants in messes come from the same classes as those in respectable families. Their real character is known only to themselves, but they conduct themselves well in the houses in which they are employed. Even the 'ficca' servants who do not stay at night are well behaved.

Kindly mention ages of these servants, in cases known to you. They are generally elderly women, from 30 to 40; sometimes old, being over 50.

6. Kindly state number of cases of corruption you have heard of. I have heard of no cases of corruption. There are scarcely any facilities for corruption. The boarders live (or live) not one in a room but generally two or three in a room. Scarcely any house had any unoccupied room or unnoticed space. Some of the boarders might be elderly persons working in offices.

7. Do you know of any messes contiguous to houses of ill fame? Have you ever known of any students living in such houses. I cannot say if any messes were contiguous to houses of ill-fame. If any were, I think scarcely any boarder would dare visit a contiguous house, for he would be noticed by his friends and neighbours.

8. What is your opinion of the principle of one mess one college (as opposed to territorial system). The principle is one which makes it convenient for college authorities to exercise supervision, for each college may control its own students easily. But I think it may be inconvenient to students who, being friends or relations, desire to live together though they read in different colleges.

9. Are you in favour of supervision, as well as registration? Would you approve of regular inspection by European inspectors? If not, what alternative method of regulation commends itself to you? I am in favour of supervision. I would not object to European inspectors on principle, but I am afraid they might be too critical and disposed to lay down impracticable conditions. Supervision by college authorities should be enough.

10. Has the system lately (i.e., during the present term) introduced worked well? What has been its effect upon the members and bearing of the students? The system lately introduced has had a very injurious effect on private colleges generally. I cannot speak for Government or missionary colleges. Students have been scared away by the hard-and-fast official system, which in many cases is more expensive than before, and they have got themselves admitted very largely into municipal colleges. The houses secured for the messes are not always suitable, and many students are grumbling. It has not been possible as a rule to provide messes with resident Superintendents, and the boys are now left to themselves in messes as before, but they are subject to occasional inspection by college authorities.

A meeting of the Calcutta University was to have been held yesterday to consider the observations of the Committee, above referred to, on the report of Mr. Russel.

The judgment in the Bankura Outrage Case, in which a European driver and a Mahomedan fireman of the Bengal Nagpur Railway were charged with having committed an outrage upon a young Bengalee peasant girl, is published elsewhere. No one can go through the case, as presented by the trying Magistrate, without his blood-boiling in wrath and indignation. Here was an innocent girl of 15 found in a defenceless condition, and a demon in human shape stopped his train, jumped out of it, chased her, and having caught hold of her, dragged her near the train in a dishevelled condition amidst her shrieks, and lifted her, in that half-nude state, with the help of another demon, into the brake van, and putting motion to the train took her off as a prisoner. And at this they did in broad daylight! When the culprits saw that they had no escape from the iron grip of the law, they invented a story which was so absurd that it could not be believed in by any sane man. In short, the principal accused said that, with a view to commit suicide she was sleeping on the rails, and it was to save her life that he put her in the railway van! His own witnesses, however, contradicted him; and the evidence leaves no room for doubt that the only object which led him to commit this dastardly act was to do something worse. If he failed to do it, as the court observes, it was not because that he was virtuously disposed, but because he had no opportunity of accomplishing his nefarious purpose, as the incident was witnessed by a man who gave the alarm, and the relations of the unfortunate girl followed the moving train.

WHAT strikes us as most astounding is the conduct of the trying Magistrate. Though he admitted that a gross outrage had been committed upon the helpless girl, and that the object of the man was to degrade her, yet not only did he not show any the least indignation at the conduct of the principal culprit, but let him off with only one month's simple imprisonment, because his father was a retired Government officer, and spent some money in defending his son! So, according to this Magistrate, there should be one kind of justice for ordinary people, and another for the sons of Government servants! The conduct of the Magistrate is all the more condemnable as, being an Indian, he could fully realize the monstrous nature of the wrong that, according to Hindu notions, was perpetrated upon the girl. Then, again, the enormity of an offence is measured by the intention of the offender. The outrage that was admittedly committed upon the girl was grave enough; but, the Magistrate was also convinced that the motive of the culprit could not have been other than that of taking undue liberties with her. That being so, with what sense of justice could he inflict such a nominal punishment upon the

We are on principle against enhancement of punishment already meted out by a court of justice. But here is a very fit case for the Government to interfere. Outrages on females by railway employes, specially by lower class Europeans, are getting more and more frequent. Sir Andrew Fraser apparently took no notice of the Saran outrage case, in which a Mussalman woman was dishonoured in a moving train by a European railway employe, in the presence of three other women, though the people of Saran brought the matter directly to His Honour's attention. The present case is no less outrageous than the other. We remember that, a few years ago, Mr. Karam Chunder De, the then sub-divisional Officer of Ranaghat, sentenced a European railway employe to three months' rigorous imprisonment, for attempting to outrage a Hindu woman; but the Government of Bengal at once moved the High Court and got the sentence enhanced to three years. The Bankura case is worse than that of Ranaghat, and should be taken up by the Government of Sir A. Fraser.

It will be remembered that the other day an esteemed correspondent, "Indica," proved, by facts and figures, in these columns how very promising were the chances of small weaving enterprises with hand-looms. In continuation of his letter, he writes under yesterday's date: "I am now in a position to state that one such factory, it is contemplated, to start in or about Calcutta as an experimental scheme, so as to prove to the public how profitably such small factories can be worked. For this purpose a Company is now being floated with a capital of only Rs. 30,000. The prospectus, I believe, will be published sometime next week." This is solid practical work which cannot but commend itself to every one who has truly the cause of his country at heart. We have very little doubt that the shares of the proposed Company will be taken up, and all encouragement offered to the promoters, by the public.

SCRAPS.

The long-talked of Agricultural College at Cawnpore is about to become a reality. There is to be a European Principal, assisted by experts, Chemists, Botanists, Entomologists, etc.

As a result of the Dane Treaty, the American lately drew from Government a large portion of the accumulated subsidy for expenditure on defence works in Aguanis. So much gone out of India for nothing.

After consultation between the Principal of the Presidency College and the Director of Public Instruction, it has been decided to punish a brilliant 4th year student, Master Satish Chandra Sing, on a charge of having used something to which exception was taken by the authorities mind, at some students' meeting. The student, we learn, has been fined Rs. 50.

The Benares Exhibition Committee has set apart a good sum from its funds for medals. In addition to those exhibits which will receive awards on the recommendation of the judges, the Committee has already announced the following awards. A cash prize of Rs. 500 for a special kind of handloom to be invented; two gold medals for the best and simplest pattern of handlooms; one gold medal for the best flour made by roller machine. A gold medal will be awarded for work done by ladies and some prizes for agricultural exhibits.

It does not surely speak much in favour of the Punjab authorities that a paper like the "Tribune" of Lahore should make such a complaint:—

"We have had occasion several times to draw attention to the vagaries and high handedness of Mr. Bosworth Smith, Deputy Commissioner, Attock. We do not know whether the Government even took notice of what was said against him and instituted any enquiries. We are however afraid that even if this was done it has produced no effect on him. Only recently he is said to have committed an assault on the Superintendent of his Vernacular Office, and there is a very general complaint of his using most foul language towards his subordinates. Our rulers speak of prestige but real prestige is damaged by incidents such as these.

Mr. W. T. Hall, C. S. I., Financial Commissioner, Burma, has been appointed member of the Viceroy's Council. During Mr. Hall's absence in Calcutta Mr. Bayne acts as Financial Commissioner.

An Anglo-Indian contemporary writes:—The Hon'ble Mr. J. Chowdhury Member for the Rajshahye Division and the Hon'ble Mr. Ambica Charan Mazumdar, Member for the Dacca Division, will probably continue as members of the Bengal Legislative Council for the unexpired period of their terms. The Vice-Chancellor at Oxford has received from the India Office a copy of regulations which have been made by the Secretary of State for India in Council for the future recruitment and training of probationers for the Indian Forest Service. In and after 1906, probationers will be selected upon the results of a competitive examination held by the Civil Service Commissioners. For the present year (1905) thirteen probationers are required, and the Secretary for India will select them from candidates offering themselves, whose respective qualifications will be considered by a selection board, appointed by the Secretary, which will sit at the India Office in the first week in October.

ANGLO-INDIAN AND INDO-ENGLISH TOPICS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 10.

MR. STEAD IN RUSSIA.

From the latest accounts received we learn that Mr. Stead is carrying on his propaganda in Russia with unabated vigour. He is holding meetings and interviewing various typical Russians, from the Tsar downwards to the workmen. His great object in view is to explain to the unenlightened in Russia the true significance of the edict which establishes a general assembly—the Duma. He is in touch too, with leaders of all political movements, and, in spite of certain criticisms levelled against him, because he never fails to speak well of the Tsar and his intentions, Mr. Stead appears to be making a triumphal progress. In Saratoff, reputed to be the most advanced Radical town in Russia, the English Radical made a vigorous speech extolling the measure of liberty which had been granted, and declared that from consultations with the authorities in St. Petersburg, he was convinced that it was intended merely as a beginning, that greater things would follow: "I think it means victory and I congratulate you upon your success. Not complete victory by any means, but nevertheless victory—a pacific victory which will banish all dread of civil strife."

The Duma is the signal of your victory! The current number of the "Review of Reviews" contains a long account from Mr. Stead's pen of his experiences in St. Petersburg for the last few weeks. He arrived before the news of peace had been proclaimed, and gives a very interesting record of the effect of the unexpected news in the capital city of the Russian Empire. Through out he speaks with deep appreciation of his Imperial Majesty, and laughs to scorn the rumours that have been current of the moroseness, weak-mindedness, and even despair of Nicholas II. He asserts, however, that the peace excited no enthusiasm; that, generally speaking, it was felt to be a great humiliation. Mr. Stead, in his usual vigorous and sympathetic manner, contributed a word of hope to Prince Oukhtomsky's paper "The Dawn," bidding Russia take heart of grace from two important events in English history, humiliating defeats which yet led to vast and important developments; they were the defeat by the French in the fifteenth century and the defeat by the American Colonists towards the end of the Eighteenth Century. For Russia, too, he affirms, progress and useful development will come, and the Duma, he maintains, is worth twenty Manchurias. It is not likely that London will see again for some time the presiding genius of the Mowbray House offices of the "Review of Reviews"; he will be busy helping to spread principles of freedom and development in Russia and from month to month the record of his doings will appear in the magazine. I should add that the October number contains another article entitled "Apologia Pro Vita Mea," in which the veteran journalist gives an autobiographical sketch of his life to prove that he is no friend to despotism but so staunch an advocate of liberty that he has not hesitated to suffer for his convictions.

The Assistant Superintendent of Police proceeds to Kalapatti, a place some 30 miles from Kalahat to enquire into a case of murder, the victim being the senior member of the Eramanattil Mannadiar family. It would appear, the man, as usual, was sleeping in his room on Friday night, when between 10 and 11 p.m. some-body got into room and committed the atrocious deed.

His many friends in India will hear with deep regret of the death of Sir Trevor Childs Plowden, K. C. S. I., formerly Resident at Hyderabad, which was reported by Reuters on the 7th The deceased came of an old and well known Anglo-Indian family closely connected with other equally old and well-known Anglo-Indian families like the Strachays and Grants. Educated at Winchester, the deceased entered the Indian Civil Service in 1835, and was posted to Bengal. He was for some time Inspector-General of Police in Assam; and in 1878 was appointed to the Foreign Department. He served as a "Political" successively in Turkish Arabia, Baghdad, Ajmere, Mewar, Kashmir and Hyderabad. Appointed to Hyderabad in 1892, he held that important Residency until 1900, when he retired.

In connection with the Royal visit, the Madras Banqueting Hall is being throughout fitted with electric lights and fans. In Government House itself several structural alterations are being made. An installation of electric fans is being set up. Hot water installations are also being laid on to the baths. The Royal apartments will be furnished with an entirely new suite of furniture, which has been ordered. The whole of the Royal party will be accommodated in Government House. The entourage which will join the party on their arrival in India, will be placed in a camp pitched close by in the Government House compound. The residences of the Governor's fine stables have been strengthened by the supply of horses from the Remount Depot at Hossur and the Bodyguard will also be increased by an additional half squadron from the 80th Madras Infantry.

Calcutta and Mofussil.

Highly Bridge Lighting.—The Port Commissioners approve of the proposal to open the bridge at night for the passage of Indian Vessels and sanction the estimate amounting to Rs. 25, 00 for lighting the bridge and approaches.

Committed to the Sessions.—On Friday before Moulvi Serajul Hug, the Railway Police prosecuted one Jemir Khan, an old thief with a record of four previous convictions against him, for the theft of a "chudder." He was committed to the sessions.

Alleged Insult to Female Modesty.—On Friday, before Mr. D. H. Kingsford, Chief Presidency Magistrate, one Mr. Branch was re-arrested on a charge of insulting the modesty of one Mrs. Peters. The case was partly gone into and was adjourned till Monday.

Municipal Present to the Royal Guests.—The coloured pearl necklace which the Corporation of Calcutta propose to present to Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales on her arrival in Calcutta, is on view at Messrs. Hamilton and Company's show-rooms in Old Court House Street. Rate-payers, so inclined, might inspect it.

Assault.—On Friday, before Moulvi eyeed Mahomed, Khan Bahadur, Officiating Police Magistrate of Alipore, Mr. Burke was charged with having assaulted one Notho Singh. The complainant was talking to one of his friends on a public road, when he was accosted by the accused who peremptorily demanded the reason of his "goimal" and without much ceremony gave a good slap upon his cheek. The court found the accused guilty and sentenced him to pay a fine of Rs. 5.

Alleged Assault By Shahebs.—On Friday before Mr. D. H. Kingsford Chief Presidency Magistrate, a man named Sudhir Chander Banerjee made a complaint against Messrs. Buchman and Fog, on a charge of assault, under the following circumstances. The allegations were that the applicant was employed in the shop of Mr. Bachmann to do packing where the second defendant, Mr. Fog was the "Chota Shaheb" on Wednesday last, the second defendant asked the applicant to remove some heavy packages, which were on the footpath and to take them inside the shop. Applicant told him that his duties were to pack goods and expressed his inability on the ground of weakness. On this, the second defendant called the applicant "sala, you dare speak to my face" and with these words, he dragged the applicant inside before the first defendant who after hearing what had passed between them is alleged to have kicked the man, who was next slapped by both defendants. The court ordered the applicant to produce his witnesses to prove the allegations.

Post Office Strike.—We understand that the General Post Office has not escaped the strike troubles that have affected the Government printing presses and the Tramway Company. A body of two hundred men, employed at the G. P. O. as menial peons, struck work on Thursday morning. About a month ago, we learn, these men forwarded a petition to the Presidency Post Master demanding an increase of pay by the 8th November and threatening to go on strike if this was not granted them. They were told in reply that the peremptory tone of their petition forbade its recognition, but if they were prepared to work to the end of the year another petition couched in different terms would be sympathetically considered. No reply was received to this communication, and the men refused to go to work on Thursday morning. Although there was some internal inconvenience the public suffered little by the strike, and by midday the places of the strikers had been filled up. We understand that the men, who are prepared to promptly return to work, will be taken back.

National University.—On Friday evening a students' meeting was held on the Maidan attached to the "Field and Academy." Nearly four thousand students attended, and Mr. A. C. Banerjee took the chair. Mr. Satish Chunder Mukerjee, of the Dawn Society, first addressed the meeting. He said that the object of the anti-Student circular was to put down the Swadeshi movement. The Government was unwilling to allow the students to join in any political meeting, because it did not like unity among the people. He said that he was not imputing any motive but that was the natural inference from the manner in which Government was proceeding. He concluded by saying that it was the duty of the students to leave Government colleges and schools in a body. Babu Manoranjan Guha next addressed the assembly. Babu Bepin Chunder Pal announced that a Zemindar of North Bengal had promised a donation of 5 lakhs in aid of the National University. As there was a conference in connection with the National University Mr. Banerjee left the meeting earlier after which it dissolved after 8 p.m.

A Shocking Murder.—Early Thursday morning the Deyganga Police was informed that a cold-blooded murder was committed at Jhikra near Baraset. Sub-Inspector Huro Lal Basu hastened to the spot and found that Monmotho Nath Paul, village Panchayat, was lying in a pool of blood on the roadside, and several serious cut wounds were visible all over his person, but life was not extinct. On enquiry it transpired that the victim who lived apart from his elder brother, used always to rebuke his nephew Money Mohan Paul, aged about eighteen years, for his misconduct. This young man being dissatisfied with his uncle determined to murder him, and so conspiring with his maternal uncle both came to his house at dead of night and called his uncle Monmotho to come along with them to his elder brother's house, on the pretext that his sister was going to be married, and that the proposed bridegroom's party had come to perform the "ripe" ceremony, and that they would go next morning. The uncle without any hesitation accompanied them, and on the way the nephew satisfied his grudge by giving him several mortal cuts with a sword which he kept concealed under his clothes, resulting in serious injuries on the neck and left arm. The victim was immediately removed to the Baraset Hospital where he lies in a precarious condition. The accused were subsequently arrested, with the blood-stained clothes and the sword, and will shortly be placed on trial.

St. Andrew's Dinner.—We understand that Sir Andrew Fraser has accepted the invitation of the Calcuttians Society of Calcutta to be present at St. Andrew's Dinner on the 13th instant.

Bogie Carriages.—The frames of a number of bogie carriages for the Kalka-Simla Railway have arrived in Calcutta. The carriages will be built at the new Kalka workshops, which have recently been erected, but was not be ready before May next.

Railway Board.—On account of the transfer of Messrs. Couchman and Jacobson, the posts of Under-Secretaries with the Railway Board will be abolished, and Assistant Secretaries will be appointed instead. Mr. Hadwood replaces Mr. Couchman, and Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Jacobson.

Sobpore Waste Lands.—A large area of low-lying land to the west of the railway at Seebpore now lies fallow, but could be rapidly taken up at a good rate of rent if it were levelled up, drained and divided by roads into convenient plots. The Vice-Chairman of the Port Commissioners has written requesting the Chief Engineer to prepare a scheme for making this land available for occupation, thereby improving the rental from the landed estate of the Commissioners.

The New Incinerator.—Further trials are, we understand, being carried out with Baker's Incinerator in Entally, which will no doubt be taken over entirely by the Corporation very soon. In connection therewith it is proposed to establish a small factory for the manufacture of flagstones made of crushed vitrified clinkers and cement. Experiments have been made and a certain number of slabs turned out. These slabs which have been subjected to tests are found to be of first class quality.

Landing Stage Lighting.—The Calcutta Port Commissioners are making special arrangements for lighting the new landing stage at Chandpal Ghat. Electric lights are to be installed on the pontoons, in the buildings of the pontoons, on the bridges, on the river bank, and on the landing steps to be used by small boats. The Commissioners are erecting their own generating plant at the jetties, but it will not be ready till April, and in the meantime the necessary power is to be purchased from the Electric Lighting and Power Company.

The Borisa Murder Case.—On Thursday at the Alipore Criminal Sessions, before Mr. Pope, the Additional District and Sessions Judge, the case of Kanta Upadhyay, lately a cook in the employ of Babu Promoda Charan Mozunder, who was charged with having killed his master's wife and having attempted to take the lives of his masters infant sons and daughter, for the purpose of committing robbery came on for trial. The Jury having returned a unanimous verdict of "guilty" on a charge of murder, the Judge sentenced him to the last penalty of the law.

Calcutta Mounted Police.—Alterations in the dress of the sows of the Calcutta mounted police force have been sanctioned, and the new clothing is now being made by Messrs. Mason, Hill and Rogers of Chowringhee. The short jacket now worn will be replaced by a sort of white frock similar in make to that worn by Indian cavalrymen. A broad red cummerbund will be worn under the belt. The head gear will be the small Kabuli hat, in blue. Altogether the change will make for smartness and neatness, which the sows now lack in appearance.

The Baduria Murder Case.—The case in which one Noy muddy Mollah of Baduria and his father were charged with being members of an unlawful assembly, rioting and causing the death of one Meajan Mollah, their co-sharer on a land dispute was concluded on Thursday before Mr. Pope, the additional District and Sessions Judge, presiding over the Alipore Criminal Sessions. The Jury returned a unanimous verdict of "guilty" against the son on a charge of grievous hurt, and "not guilty" against the father. The Judge agreeing with the verdict sentenced the son to five years rigorous imprisonment and acquitted the father.

Grievous Hurt.—On Thursday before Mr. D. H. Kingsford Chief Presidency Magistrate one Buduan was re-arrested on a charge of causing grievous hurt to one Mr. Heard by striking him with a "lathi" on the arm. The facts were fully reported when the case was first heard. The Court found ac used guilty and sentenced him to suffer six weeks' rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs. 150, in default to undergo another six weeks' imprisonment.—In another case the police at the instance of a woman named Hari Dassi, prosecuted one Bhut Nath Das, and two women. The Senior Court Inspector Mr. Abdur Rahim, opened the case by saying that the complainant and one of the women had a quarrel over some petty matter. The man, in the cause of the latter bit the complainant, while the other woman kicked her and knocked out two of her teeth. A charge of causing grievous hurt was then preferred against the defendants. Babu Jatindra Mohun Ghose, vakil, appeared for the defence. The case was adjourned.

Stalked by Vultures.—Have you ever been stalked by a vulture? Asks Mr. E. H. D. Sewell in the Indian Field. I have, and the feeling is a queer one. I was on famine duty in the Deccan in 1900, and the food of the vulture in my neighbourhood was not, as you may imagine, all beef. I was endeavouring to keep the larder going with a 577. To circumvent a buck the only way left to me was to cross an open field, drier than any sward, of about 200 yards' breadth. To do so it was necessary to lie flat, reach out the 577 as far as possible by holding the stock, lay it down gently, muzzle resting on something to prevent grit getting down the barrel, and then shuffle myself along up to and just past it, reach back for it, and repeat the process. By the time I had left forty or fifty yards behind me I became aware of shadows circling round me, passing and repassing, but for a few yards took no notice of them. Then the noise of wings striking an unusual note caused me to throw a hasty glance upward. I cannot describe nor shall I ever forget, the ghastly feeling that came over me as I at once recognised vultures, some five or six of them, and it flashed across me that I was the object of their attention. It was not until I had drawn a bead, and of course, missed, that my attendant ghouls found out the error of their ways.

ARRIVAL OF THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME FROM THE BOMBAY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Bombay, Nov. 9.

The Appolo Bunder gave a brilliant scene from morning. The "Renown" reached as announced before exactly in time. The people of Appolo Bunder, Hornby, Rampart, Carnac, Kalbadevi and Bhondibazar, Parel, Grantstaid, Gamdevi and Malbar roads thronged and repeated salutes as per programme were fired. Chiefs, Sardars High Court Judges, Council members, Civil Military and other officers all more than 100 with attendants were on one side of the Shamina and the other side bristled with Royal Guards, Military and Cadet Corps ready near the Bunder. 400 seats were provided for the municipal corporators. The Hon. Mr. Mehta, got a special chair as President of the Corporation. The Viceroy and Lord Lamington went to see the Prince and returned the Prince's arrival in the Bunder by firing guns. The Prince, the Princess, Lord Curzon, the Vicereine, Lord Lamington, and Prince's retinue reached the dais. All stood and cheered, vociferously upon the Prince and the Princess. The Viceroy, Vicereine and Lord Lamington were all standing.

The Prince received municipal address from Mr. Mehta's hands. The casket was worth seeing. The following is the text of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales' reply to the address of welcome from the Bombay Municipal Corporation:—

"I thank you most sincerely for the kind and enthusiastic welcome which you have given to the Princess of Wales and myself. We are both deeply moved by your touching allusion to her presence here. She is indeed proud to be the first Princess of Wales to have set foot on these shores. The words of your address, eloquent as they are, will not, however, convey to our fellow subjects in other parts of the Empire what we see here to-day. Nor do they render full justice to the efforts and goodwill of the citizens of this great western part of India which culminate in this splendid ceremony. Just thirty years ago all but a day my dear father the King-Emperor was standing far from this very spot and was saying that it had been the dream of his life to see India. The Princess and I have had similar anticipations and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the manner in which you and your fellow-workers have brought these dreams to realisation. In thus following in the footsteps of my father we are but carrying out the tradition established by him and one which I trust will be repeated as generation succeeds generation. I hope and indeed I am confident that the same loving interest in this great continent which was inspired in my father's heart by his visit to India and which has never abated will equally come to travel through the various countries which make up this great empire. The Princess and I can win sympathy and goodwill of the people of India. We shall secure a precious result from the voyage which we have been privileged to undertake. It is the last stage of our memorable and happy mission, of four years to his Majesty's great dominions across the east. The advantages of this beautiful continent which we have heard much of your time, we have seen as the capital of western Asia, which "links" this eastern part of Europe, Bombay has had to herself more perhaps than any other oriental city to requirements of modern life up to her position and as the threshold of this picturesque and fascinating land of India that position is somewhat exacting. But if I may judge from a brief impression from the sea and from what I observe here, Bombay does not fall short of her obligations. Apart from the beauty of her buildings and her natural advantages she has thought for trade facilities and for what is of equal or perhaps greater importance for the health and well-being of nearly 8,00,000 people. I am delighted to be associated with the new dock and with the first large street which the City Improvement Trust has constructed. Bombay has had her vicissitudes and your municipal history has its counterpart in many other cities of our empire which I have had the pleasure of visiting. Your period of prosperity has endowed you with buildings and other possessions, of which you may well be proud. But it also brought you a population perhaps inconveniently large and you are now wisely grappling with the problems which have beset us in the west—the problems of wide streets and healthy industrial quarters. I wish you Mr. Chairman and all who are working for the welfare of Bombay godspeed. I can imagine no nobler work than the endeavour of the individual to do something for his town. There is one drawback to journeys such as that on which the Princess and I are now starting. Time is all too short to see every thing and to tell every one who has joined in greeting us how heartily grateful we are. I have inherited from my father and from our late beloved Sovereign your first Queen-Emress a love for India and for Indians. From my youth I have associated the name of India with qualities of kindness, loyalty, courtesy and bravery and I doubt not that these early ideas will be confirmed and strengthened by the experiences which we await me in the next few months. We cannot as we should like see all your many institutions but we hope to have opportunities of gaining some insight into those of a similar character in other parts of India. We both hope to carry home with us not only a warm sympathy and affection for the people of India but an increased and abiding interest in India's wants and problems and an acquaintance with the various classes—official and non-official, British and Indian, which under God's Providence are labouring to one end the well being of India and the happiness of her peoples. I will not fail to convey to the King-Emperor the expression of your loyal devotion to his throne and person and remembering that these assurances will come to him with special gratifications and I feel sure that his great company will join with me in wishing him very many happy returns of the day.

Mr. Pherozeshah Mehta presented bouquets and garlanded the Prince and the Princess. 20,000 children at 12 different places were given medals on both sides. The Royal guests were strewn with flowers in five places, specially on the way generally. They were in many places photographed.

The Anti-Swadeshi Circular

CAN IT EVER BECOME INOPERATIVE. Object of the circular... Policy of the Government... The position of the people...

ALLEGED HIGHHANDED CONDUCT OF A EUROPEAN CONSTABLE.

On Friday at about 2 p.m. a Bengali gentleman was coming to Calcutta from Howrah in the ferry steamer "Buckland" when a European constable on duty on board is said to have abused him because the latter wanted to sit on the upper deck.

THE RANGOON ABDUCTION CASE.

Rangoon, Nov. 9.—The abduction case against E. Maung and seven others was today committed by the Magistrate to the Sessions of the Chief Court, which will open on the 21st instant.

ARREST OF BABU BEPIN CH. PAL.

On Friday morning Babu Bepin Ch. Pal was wrongfully arrested by the Police constable at the Sealdah station. He, dressed in dhoti, was seated on a bench when a constable came and asked to leave the seat saying that Indians were not permitted to sit there when Europeans were about the place.

ALL ABOUT AN ASSAULT ON A EUROPEAN.

The other day, Mr. D. H. Kingsford, Chief Presidency Magistrate, convicted one Budhan and sentenced him to six weeks' rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs. 150 in default to undergo another six weeks' imprisonment. In connection with this matter Mr. C. Heard applied for a notice on one Doran Halowai a sweet meat shop-keeper and master of Budhan, and others to show cause why they should not be bound down to keep the peace towards him.

On account of the press strike in Calcutta, the "Gazette of India" will continue to be published at Simla until further orders.

The net yield of the income tax in the United Provinces during the two last years in which it stood upon the original footing was over 25 lakhs. On the 1st April 1903, Sir Edward Law removed the tax from the poor payers with incomes ranging from Rs. 500 to Rs. 1,000 per annum, and its returns fell to a little below 20 lakhs.

Pakiri, the ex-Inspector of Police of Thongwa district, who was in 1902 sentenced to various terms of imprisonment, aggregating fourteen years, for fabricating false evidence and framing groundless charges against innocent villagers, has been transferred from the Rangoon Central prison to H. M. Penitentiary, Madras.

At a meeting of the Mahajana Sabha, held on Saturday, the 4th instant, it was resolved that a Memorial be submitted to the Government of Madras, praying for the establishment of special schools and for holding demonstrations in select centres, for the instruction of the weaving classes, in the use of the improved modern appliances and for the opening of a special department in connection with the manufacturing industries of the country, as is already being done by experts in view to their furnishing the public with instruction and advice, with regard to such industries.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS

London, Nov. 7. The New Zealand football team has beaten Oxford by 47 to nil. Their total score up to the present is 540 against 15. Subscriptions to the Bank of Absinnia opened to-day and closed at noon over subscribed. A banquet was given last night in honour of Lord Lansdowne in recognition of the conclusion of the Anglo-Japanese treaty.

Despite the general cessation of strikes in Russia, the Railway Union has issued a significant circular to railway men saying they must store their arms, and when the decisive moment comes, rise as one man and never lay down their arms until the victory is complete.

Details of the horrors, during the past ten days in the Russian Provinces, are gradually leaking out and surpass all imagination. In one instance, at Minsk, several detachments of troops poured a cross-fire on an unarmed crowd, killing and wounding 400 in a few moments.

It appears that fifty thousand troops with guns from warships, landed at Helsingfors on 3rd instant. The situation became most critical when the Imperial Manifesto arrived and relieved tension.

An official communique published at St. Petersburg says it is undeniable that in some places the local authorities are hostile to reforms, and encouraged the recent excesses. Judicial investigation is ordered wherever the authorities are suspected.

A mass meeting of Jews has been held at New York, at which a committee was formed for the purpose of relieving the distress of Russian sufferers, irrespective of religion. 50,800 dollars were subscribed on the spot. Telegrams were received from the Jews in London, Paris and Berlin, offering to participate in the international organisation.

A grand open-air mass meeting of Mahomedans—inhabitants of Debottar and adjoining villages—was held yesterday evening under the presidency of Moulvi Aseruddin, a highly respected leader of Mahomedans. The President's address evoked greatest enthusiasm and the assembled mass nodded in a body to use none but Swadeshi articles.

The London Rothschilds and the New York banker Mr. Schiff, have each contributed £10,000 to the London fund for the relief of the Russian Jewish victims. The money will be remitted through the British Consuls, whom Lord Lansdowne has authorised to distribute.

Grand Duke Vladimir has resigned command of the St. Petersburg Military District. Yielding to popular demand General Treppoff has resigned. The authorities at Kishineff deliberately organised the rabble against the Jews giving troops for unbridled massacre and pillage lasting two days. Seventy were killed and 120 wounded, all being Jews.

A mob at Ismail arranges an auto-da-fé burning alive eleven Jews who had taken refuge in a haystack. 59 Jews were killed at Kalarasch. Similar stories continue to be received from other towns in Bessarabia. Soldiers and sailors at Cronstadt joined the workmen in sacking, pillaging and burning. Desperate fighting has taken place between Loyallists and Revolutionaries, and there are pools of blood in the streets. The inhabitants are fleeing, and the warships have been ordered out of the harbour.

It is reported that a force of Lancers sent from Peterhof has joined the rioters in view of the possibility of further disturbances at Odessa. The German, Austrian and Italian Consuls have requested their Governments to send guardships from Constantinople to Odessa.

Sir Charles Hardinge, British Ambassador, St. Petersburg, has received the Grand Cross of the Victoria Order.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS

London, Nov. 9. It is estimated that Mr. McClellan, the Tammany candidate, has been re-elected Mayor of New York by a narrow majority. The Earl of Warwick and his brothers start for Nairobi on a sporting expedition on the 26th instant.

Prince Louis of Battenberg had a most enthusiastic reception in New York. The English Mail steamer was signalled to-day at 7 hrs. 39 mts. The Mail is expected to arrive at the Calcutta General Post Office by special postal train on Sunday at about 1.45 a.m.

Reuter's correspondent who has reached Kronstadt, found the meeting quelled. The most reliable troops now vigorously control the town. The survivors among the mutineers have been arrested.

The following is the official list of the next Council in Russia:—Ivan Shipoff, Minister of France; M. Outler, Minister for Agriculture; M. Timiriouzeff, Minister of Commerce; M. Nemeshoeff, Manager of South-Western Railways, Minister of Communications, and M. Tilofassoff, Comptroller of the Empire. With the exception of M. Nemeshoeff, all are departmental heads of various ministries, giving M. de Witte's Cabinet a strong bureaucratic complexion.

All the newspapers emphasize the Imperial significance of the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to India. The "Times" remarks that they represent the permanent authority of the British Empire and remind people that great Viceroys and renowned Generals come and go, but the Government of India remains and that mistakes, if made, are not irrevocable.

The following is the result of the race for the Liverpool Autumn Cup. Saint Wulfram ... 1, Chaucer ... 2, Glenamov ... 3.

The death is announced of Mr. William Parrott, Member for Normanton.

Mutinous soldiers and sailors at Cronstadt, who numbered five thousand, have killed ten unpopular officers. Two squadrons of Hussars and two battalions of the crack Preobrajensky Regiment have arrived at Cronstadt. General Treppoff has been appointed Commandant of the palace troops.

The Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholovich has replaced the Grand Duke Vladimir in command of the St. Petersburg Military District. The "Standard" says that theoretically the Japanese Navy will form part of a scheme of world-wide naval manoeuvres in 1906. It is assumed that the situation is threatening, and that the Anglo-Japanese natives are watching enemies' ships throughout the world.

Mr. Balfour at the Lord Mayor's banquet at the Guildhall began his speech by a lengthy statement regarding the unemployed problem, and dwelt on the difficulty of finding a remedy which would not do more harm than good. He appealed to public benevolence, and especially those present, to support the machinery provided by Government.

Turning to foreign politics he said that, from Korea to Morocco, there were a succession of States which may cause difficulty to civilised Powers, and the object of diplomacy is to prevent a conflict there, and this was not easy. The less civilised nations cannot be left alone owing to the competition for markets. Peace is to be maintained by arrangements between the civilised countries themselves, not by the less civilised playing one civilised power off against another.

Japan's "Our new ally, a great power arisen in the Far East." It was a happy time to survey foreign politics when our allies were beginning a great mission of civilisation. Our friends in Russia were absorbing public interest by a great movement in the direction of self-government. All Great Britain wished the Tsar and his advisers success, and hoped that the future would be unclouded by the horrible scenes marred its initial progress. He dwelt upon the efforts of Great Britain during the past ten years to render war impossible and develop arbitration. He pointed out that no boundary question in Africa or elsewhere was likely to produce friction, and he was sanguine that we should see war in the future, unless a ruler arises trampling on the rights of his neighbours with a view to national aggrandisement. But there was no prospect of such a calamity in Europe. He concluded by prophesying a long peace, comparing the remark of Pitt a century ago who prophesied a long war. "But though happier than our forefathers we must be prepared for any emergency and make sacrifices on behalf of the defensive forces of the Empire."

INDIAN TELEGRAMS

GAZETTE OF INDIA. Simla, Nov. 10. The services of Mr. Barrow I.O.S., are placed at the disposal of the Military Department with effect from 6th November.

Mr. Burt is promoted to special class grade first as Manager Eastern Bengal Railway. Mr. Jacob C.I.E., is confirmed as Manager of Oudh-Rohilkhand Railway in special class grade two.

Mr. Biscoe is confirmed as Traffic Superintendent, North-Western Railway. Mr. Kierständer is confirmed as Traffic Supdt., Eastern Bengal State Railway.

Major Bonham-Carter is promoted to class first grade first, Superior Revenue Establishment. Mr. Gabbet is appointed Consulting Engineer, Government of India for Railways, Lucknow.

Major Rose R. E. reverts to Deputy Consulting Engineer for Railways Lucknow on relief by Mr. Gabbet. The following passed students of the Coopers' Hill College are appointed Assistant Engineers 3rd grade, State Railways:—Messrs. Harvey and Hight, Eastern Bengal State Railway; Mr. Briggs, Nagda-Muttra Railway.

Mr. Hensley, Examiner of Accounts, re-quires with effect from 21st November.

BLOCKING OF THE SUEZ CANAL.

Allahabad, Nov. 9. The "Pioneer's" London Correspondent wires under date, 8th November:—In connection with the blowing up of the "Chatham" and the delay caused to traffic in the Suez Canal, the Steamship Companies have been circularized with a view to joint action against the Canal Company. The damages for detention are estimated at £80,000 to £100,000.

CABUL AFFAIRS.

Allahabad, Nov. 9. Reports continue to be received from Cabul that the Amir will visit Jellalabad this winter and preparations for a Durbar are being made.

There is said to be a growing scarcity of food-grains in northern Afghanistan. Prices have risen considerably in Cabul; but famine in the true sense of the word is not apprehended as it is believed that food stocks are really sufficient to carry the country through winter.

News from Bokhara states that Kushbegi Khan, Governor of the city is dead, and that he has been succeeded by his brother, Hasan Gul. The latter is a protégé of the Russians and is not altogether in favour with the Amir but His Highness was not equal to resisting the pressure brought to bear upon him.

CONTROL OF BRITISH TROOPS IN THE SOUDAN.

Allahabad, Nov. 9. The War Office has, wires the "Pioneer's" London Correspondent, just given sanction to a proposal made by Sir Reginald Wingate, with the entire concurrence and approval of Lord Cromer, that henceforward British troops stationed in Khartoum and other Sudan garrisons, where British detachments may at any time be posted, will be under the immediate orders and command of the Sirdar and Governor-General of the Sudan, and will cease to belong to the command of the General Officer commanding the army of occupation in Egypt.

"SWADESHI" IN BOMBAY.

Bombay, Nov. 9. Yesterday night a crowded meeting of more than 5000 students attending the University examinations was held in Girgaon to support the "Swadeshi" movement. The Hon'ble Mr. Khare presided. He strongly criticised the actions of the educational authorities in prohibiting students from joining the movement and advocated that students of all grades should take, and they are actually taking, part in it. He also exposed the inconsistency of the arguments of Principal Solby, Mrs. Annie Besant and others. Speeches in Hindi, Gujarathi and Marathi were delivered by different speakers who, one and all, strongly supported the movement.

SYMPATHY FOR RUNGPOUR STUDENTS.

Bhanga (Faridpur) Nov. 10. A students' meeting was held yesterday sympathising with the Rungpur students and congratulating them on their noble conduct in leaving school rather than desist from serving their Motherland. Boys here have determined to follow their example, if necessary, and pray for a National University to impart to them sound and healthy education and are resolved to join it as soon as started.

GAMBLERS ARRESTED.

Monghyr, Nov. 10. Sixty three gamblers were arrested in the Gaurakshani Sabha of Babu Baijnath Ram Goenka, a wealthy Banker. A gathering used to be annually held with the pretext of raising funds for feeding cows. The gambling used to be also carried on so far undetected but this year the police headed by a European Inspector arrested 63 persons while gambling in the said Gaurakshani Sabha and sent them to jail. Great sensation prevails.

BURIA ITEMS.

Rangoon, Nov. 10. A collision has occurred on the river between the steam launch Alexandra of the Burma Oil Company and steam launch Gunner belonging to the military authorities. The collision took place early this morning near Monkey Point. The whole of the stern part of the launch Gunner was smashed in and the Alexandra received a severe shock damaging her bows. Both launches are under repair now at Dalla. No lives were lost or persons injured.

The appointment of Adviser on Chinese Affairs in Burma has been abolished. Altogether there have been three occupants of the office, the last incumbent being Taw Sein Ko.

INDIAN TELEGRAMS

THE MADARIPUR STUDENTS' CASE.

Madaripur, Nov. 11. On the complaint of Mr. Cattle that his durwan was assaulted by students, the Assam Government has decided that the so-called ringleaders must be flogged before the Sub-divisional Officer or boys to be fined 150 Rs. or grant-in-aid to be withdrawn. The Head Master refuses to carry out executive orders. Mr. Cattle accused by a student for cowardly assault was discharged by the Faridpur Magistrate. The local Indian Magistrate has been transferred.

RAT DESTRUCTION IN RANGOON.

Rangoon, Nov. 10. There were during October 10,289 rats killed in Rangoon. In the same month 135 specimens of blood films and blood pipettes were examined at the plague laboratory. Ninety-nine of these specimens were found to contain plague bacilli. Experiments made to ascertain the number of rats still left in the crowded area of the town by the employment of trained rat catchers resulted in complete failure to capture any rats.

HIGH COURT.

VACATION BENCH.

(Before Justices Woodroffe and Mukerjee)

DISPUTE BETWEEN BROTHERS-IN-LAW.

Babu Bidhu Bhusan Ganguly applied for the admission of an appeal on behalf of one Rai Charan Mandal who was convicted by the Sessions Judge of Khulna in concurrence with one of two assessors of offence under sections 326, 307 I. P. C. and sentenced to four years' rigorous imprisonment. The facts of the case are shortly as follows. The complainant Jogneswar Poddar and the accused are brothers-in-law having married two sisters. The accused who was living with his wife at the house of the complainant for sometime past suspected intrigue between the complainant and the accused's wife, and left for his native village with his wife and returned to the complainant's house after about ten days, slept with the complainant in the same bed and at dead of night, inflicted some injuries on the complainant with a 'dao' in his attempt to kill him. The defence admitted the infliction of the injuries but contended that the wounds were inflicted when the complainant attempted to tamper with the virtue of the accused's wife. Their Lordships admitted the appeal and sent for the record.

A RULE MADE ABSOLUTE.

Babu Atulya Churn Bose appeared in support of a rule issued on behalf of one Mahesh Narain Pandey calling upon the District Magistrate of Howrah to show cause why the proceedings before the Bench Magistrate of Howrah should not be transferred to some other Magistrate outside the District. The petitioner is a Janadar in the employ of Messrs. John King and Co. and his case is that he is being prosecuted at the instance of the Howrah Municipality under the Bengal Municipal Act for picketing bullocks on the roadside and allowing urine to crowd down on a drain over which dispute is going on between the Municipality and the masters of the petitioner. It was alleged that the case was the outcome of a long-standing dispute between the District Magistrate who was also the Chairman of the Municipality and Messrs. John King and Co. the petitioner's masters.

Their Lordships after hearing the learned vakil and going through the explanation submitted by the Magistrate remarked that the Magistrate's letter in no way replied to or explained the facts stated in the petition. The rule was accordingly made absolute and the case was transferred to the 24-Pargannas.

PREMATURE PROCEEDING.

On 4th April last one Mussummat Akhjan Koor executed a deed of sale in favour of Giani Rai and Ramphal Rai in the presence of four witnesses. Five days after the same woman executed a mortgage deed in respect of the said property in favour of one Shew Narain Lal. On 10th April when the mortgage deed was put up before the Sub-Registrar of Dinapur for registration, a petition written by the writer of the sale deed purporting to have been written out at the instance of Giani Rai and Ramphal Rai, was laid before the Registrar by way of intimation stating that a woman would appear before the Registrar falsely personating Akhjan Koor. The matter was reported by the Sub-Registrar to the District Registrar, who sent it to the Sub-divisional Magistrate of Dinapur for enquiry. Upon a mere denial by Ramphal the whole matter dropped and the mortgage was directed to be registered. On the 13th June Giana and Ramphal submitted the prior deed of sale for registration and asked for compulsory registration by summoning the woman. The Sub-Registrar again reported the matter to the District Registrar who ordered a careful and sifting enquiry to be made in order that it might be ascertained who were the real culprits. The Sub-divisional Magistrate held an enquiry and reported against Giana Rai, Ramphal Rai and four witnesses to the deed, holding that it was a forged deed. Upon that report the District Registrar directed a prosecution. Against that order this court was moved and a rule was issued which came on for hearing to-day.

Mr. P. Morton appeared in support of the rule. Babu Dasarathi Sanyal showed cause. After hearing both sides their Lordships thought that no order had yet been made refusing the registration of the deed. Even if such an order were made there would be a right of appeal against such order and in the event of that order being affirmed on appeal there would be a right of suit. Under those circumstances, their Lordships held that the proceeding which had been taken against the petitioners, was premature. Accordingly the rule was made absolute.

A MUKTEAR IN TROUBLE.

In a certain case from Hooghly the petitioner obtained a rule on the affidavit of a local Muktear J. C. Bose. During the hearing of the rule it was pointed out that the affidavit was a false one and their Lordships directed the District Magistrate to report whether the Muktear was a certificated Muktear or not. That report reached the High Court and their Lordships after perusing it passed the following order:—"In our judgment in criminal revision case No. 937 of 1905 delivered on the 24th October last we directed the District Magistrate of Hooghly to report whether J. C. Bose who swore to the affidavit on the basis of which the rule was granted was a certificated Muktear or not. The District Magistrate has now reported that Jogendra Chandra Bose is a certificated Muktear. We now direct the District Magistrate to hold an enquiry into the matter of the affidavit, the truth of the statements contained in which has been denied by the trying Deputy Magistrate, Babu Ananda Prasad Bose. The Magistrate in holding the enquiry should give notice to Jogendra Chandra Bose and call upon him to submit any explanation he may have to offer. When the result of the enquiry made by the Magistrate is reported to this court let the matter be brought up for further consideration and for orders if necessary under section 13 of the Legal Practitioners Act. A copy of this order is to be sent down to the District Magistrate at once. Let also a copy of our judgment dated 24th October, as also copies of the petition and affidavit filed in this court and the explanations submitted by the District Magistrate and the trying Deputy Magistrate be sent down. The Magistrate will also report as to the previous conduct and reputation of Jogendra Chandra Bose as a certificated Muktear.

A 'MY DEAR CONSTANT' CASE.

Their Lordships in delivering judgment in a certain case in which a brick-dealer got into trouble for preferring a complaint against a European, remarked that "a person should not be appointed a Judge in his own cause." One Nak Chand Pathak, who used to supply bricks to the Majhwa Factory in Bettiah, on 28th June last filed a petition of complaint in the Court of the Sub-divisional Officer Mr. Hopkyns against two men Juthan Lal and Lal Bahadur, clerk and servant respectively of the above factory on charges of having stolen 10 cart-loads of bricks from his kiln. The Sub-divisional Officer after examining the petitioner directed Mr. Maxwell Smith, manager of the Majhwa Factory, to make an enquiry and submit a report. On 1st July Mr. Maxwell Smith submitted a lengthy report in course of which he said that Nakchand was a very bad man and had cheated him of some bricks. He further said that he was informed that Nakchand had himself removed the bricks and then preferred a false complaint against his servants. Nakchand objected to this procedure of an enquiry by the master of the accused but the Magistrate rejected the application. The Magistrate, at the request of Mr. Maxwell, visited the factory and after holding an enquiry there on 3rd July dismissed the complaint under section 203 Cr. P. Code. This was not all. On 3rd August the Magistrate holding that the petitioner had failed to prove his case and should be proceeded under section 211 I.P.C. sent the records to the District Magistrate for the prosecution of the petitioner. Nak Chand then moved the Sessions Judge with no effect. He then moved this Court and obtained a rule which was disposed of by their Lordships.

Babu Dasarathi Sanyal appeared in support of the rule and Mr. Douglas White, Deputy Legal Remembrancer, appeared for the Crown.

Their Lordships delivered the following judgment:—"In this case a Rule was issued on the District Magistrate of Champaran to show cause why the order of the Sub-Divisional Officer of Bettiah directing that the petitioner should be prosecuted should not be set aside. The order complained of is one dated the 3rd of August 1905 directing the prosecution of the petitioner for an offence under sec. 211 of the Indian Penal Code. In the proceeding in which the petitioner was called upon to show cause why he should not be prosecuted under this section certain witnesses were examined on his behalf. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate expressed himself as not being satisfied with that evidence and stating that in his opinion the complainant had failed to prove his case, directed the prosecution of the present petitioner under sec. 211 I.P.C. That finding is in itself, an insufficient one. There is, however, a further objection to the order in that it is (as appears from its terms) based upon the report of Mr. Maxwell Smith, dated the 1st July 1905 and also upon matters which the Magistrate says that he observed when making the enquiry under sec. 202 of the Criminal Procedure Code. In our opinion neither of these two matters should properly have been taken into consideration in the judicial proceedings in which the accused was called upon to show cause why he should not be prosecuted under Sec. 211 I.P.C., nor is this indeed contested by the Deputy Legal Remembrancer, who appears for the Crown. We must, therefore, set aside the order complained of, of the 3rd August 1905, directing the prosecution of the petitioner. We are of opinion that a further enquiry should be made into the petitioner's complaint as the order dismissing the complaint under Sec. 203 Cr. P. C. is, as we have already stated, based in part upon the report made by Mr. Maxwell Smith and in part upon certain statements which were made to the Magistrate when the enquiry under Sec. 202 Cr. P. C. was being carried on. No doubt the reference to Mr. Maxwell Smith was not expressly prohibited by the terms of sec. 202 Cr. P. C., but we think that it is an order which should not have been made upon the principle that a person should not be appointed a Judge in his own cause or in a case in which he is at all interested. The Magistrate in his order stated that Juthan Lal was the Karani or the clerk of Mr. Maxwell Smith of the Majhwa Factory and he says that the accused being a servant of Mr. Maxwell Smith he sent the complaint to him for favour of report. In fact he sent the complaint to Mr. Maxwell Smith upon the very grounds which should have prevented him from doing so. The complaint was one not only against a servant of Mr. Maxwell Smith but in respect of a matter which to a certain extent Mr. Maxwell Smith was himself concerned in. That the alleged false charge is said to have been made in consequence of a dispute between the accused and Mr. Maxwell Smith. This being so we are of opinion that the matter should not have been sent to Mr. Maxwell Smith for investigation. Next we find in the order of the Magistrate dismissing the complaint that he acts not only upon statements of Mr. Maxwell Smith contained in his report but also upon information given by Mr. Maxwell Smith regarding matters which Mr. Maxwell Smith had himself heard from others, one of such matters being that Mr. Maxwell Smith informed the Magistrate that he had himself been informed that the petitioner had come with carts to remove the bricks and was pulling down the brick field. Having regard to the fact that we intend to allow fresh proceedings, if necessary, to be initiated against the petitioner, we think that the order under sec. 203 dismissing the complaint should also be set aside. We direct that there be a further enquiry by another Magistrate than Mr. Hopkyns into the petitioner's complaint. If upon and after such enquiry the petitioner's complaint is dismissed it will be then open to the Magistrate to again call upon the petitioner to show cause why he should not be prosecuted under section 211 I.P.C. for having preferred a false complaint. We further direct that the complaint of the petitioner be transferred to the file of the District Magistrate to be heard by him or by such other competent Magistrate whom the District Magistrate may appoint."

Colombo, Nov. 3.—A Kandyan villager was brought into the Civil Hospital, Gampola, to-day suffering from a severe gun-shot wound. It appears that another villager, whilst in search of game in the jungle, was what he thought was a wild-fowl, and fired at it. To his astonishment he discovered that he had shot a human being. The headman arrested the villager and took him to the police, with the gun, which is an unlicensed one. The case has been postponed for further inquiry.

The Royal Tour

THE DISEMBERKATION.

The landing and reception of Their Royal Highnesses at the Apollo Bunder, Bombay, provided a series of wonderful and stirring scenes, in which dazzling episodes succeeded each other in rising tones of brilliance. The culmination was reached in the spectacle in the crowded amphitheatre.

At noon, when a salute was fired in honour of the King-Emperor's birthday, the space in the Bunder began to be cleared of the crowd, which witnessed the arrival of the Royal Squadron. A little more than an hour later the music of the bands announced that the troops were lining the routes of the Viceregal and Royal Processions. By two o'clock the Chiefs and notables were beginning to arrive in the "shamiana," and the amphitheatre was gradually filling. The sun was very hot, and the people in the open space and along the routes through the city had a warm period of waiting. The guard-of-honour of the Royal Scots arrived and took up a position in the "shamiana," and the Chiefs and high officials succeeded each other, each adding to the mass of gorgeous colour, filling the cool depths of the great tent. By three o'clock there was a rattle of approaching artillery, and the head of the Viceregal procession swung into sight in the Bunder Road. The Viceroys' escort, headed by the Artillery, came up at a smart pace, passing under the decorative gateway and around the amphitheatre in a splendid cavalcade. As the Viceroys' carriage reached the gate the guard-of-honour saluted, the tattered colours of the Royal Scots fluttered out, and the band played God Save the King. After a brief delay the Viceroys and Lady Curzon passed along the path of crimson cloth to the Bunder steps, where members of the Staff had already taken up positions. His Excellency wore a political uniform with the insignia of the Star of India. He looked well, but was still suffering from the cough which has noticeably troubled him since his arrival in Bombay. Lady Curzon appeared charming in a handsome gown of dove-coloured embroidered silk, with a hat and sunshade completely in harmony. Their Excellencies boarded the Indian Maria launch "Bee," and as she prepared to move off towards the "Renown," the saluting battery on the middle ground began a Royal Salute, which was echoed by the "Hyacinth," the other ship of the East Indies Squadron, and the Portuguese ship "St. Gabriel." As the Viceregal launch set out on her journey to the "Renown," the ships were manned, and guards paraded and saluted as the launch drew near. Fifteen minutes after the departure of the Viceroys, the Governor of Bombay arrived, accompanied by the Bishop, the Chief Justice, and the Members of Government, embarked on the launch "Aida," under a salutation from the middle ground battery. These arrangements were carried out punctually, and with the precision of clockwork. Then came a brief period of waiting while the Viceroys were being received on the "Renown" and the Governor of Bombay and the officials with him were being presented to Their Royal Highnesses. The interval was relieved by the arrival and landing of the members of the Royal suite. All of them on ascending the steps were introduced to General Sir Archibald Hunter and others waiting at the head.

At 3-35 Lord Lamington and those accompanying him returned to the shore and took up positions to receive Their Royal Highnesses at the head of the steps. Precisely at 4 o'clock the first gun of a salute from the "Hyacinth" announced to the eagerly waiting crowds that the Prince and Princess were coming off from the "Renown." The salute was taken up by the other ships, and from the fog of dense smoke enveloping the "Renown" and the "Hyacinth," two launches were seen to emerge. For a moment there was a doubt as to the Royal barge. Then a big scarlet launch forged ahead towards the north of the harbour and the other smaller one came straight on towards the Bunder. This, the Royal barge, was painted in bright green and floated the Royal Standard and the White Ensign. The sound of cheering came over the water as the Royal boat passed each of the vessels at anchor. As she headed on gallantly for the landing place, it was seen that she was accompanied by a couple of pinnaces as an escort. Meanwhile a guard-of-honour, consisting of officers of the various regiments now in Bombay and of members of the Viceroys' and Governor's Staffs, had taken up positions on the Bunder steps. Conspicuous among these was His Highness the Maharaja of Idar, Sir Pertab Singh, in the uniform of the Imperial Cadet Corps, of which he is the Commandant. The Prince and Princess were accompanied in the Royal launch by the Viceroys and Lady Curzon, and as His Royal Highness stepped ashore the battery on the Bunder began a Royal Salute, which was repeated by the warships. While the guns roared out their welcome, the Prince and the Viceroys and Her Royal Highness and Lady Curzon crowned the gangway of the landing barge to the steps where the Maharaja of Idar instantly laid his sword at the feet of the Prince and next at the feet of the Princess as she stepped to the land. This graceful and symbolic action was accompanied by a profound obeisance. The officers here gathered and were presented to Their Royal Highnesses, this ceremony affording ample time for excellent views of the Royal landing to be taken by numbers of photographers installed at the Bunder head. Both Their Royal Highnesses appeared to be in excellent health. The Prince of Wales wore the white tropical uniform of an Admiral with the insignia of the Star of India. Her Royal Highness, looking radiant was dressed in white relieved by pale blue trimming and a blue plume in her white toque.

Ascending the steps Their Royal Highnesses were received by the Governor, the Naval Commander-in-Chief, the Bishop of Bombay, the members of Council, and the Lieutenant-General Commanding. Introductions began immediately, Lord Lamington presenting those in the "shamiana" to His Royal Highness. Beginning with the Consular body, the first of the representatives of foreign nations to be presented was the Consul for Germany, who is the "doyen" of the Consular representatives in Bombay. Thereafter the presentations continued throughout the "shamiana," prominent personages, officials, Chiefs and Sardars being introduced in turn. Their Royal Highnesses were clearly impressed by the brilliance of the gathering which here greeted them. The introductions concluded, the Prince of Wales, attended by Sir Achibald Heintley, Commanding the Western Command, and the General Officer Commanding the Bombay Brigade, inspected the guard-of-honour.

A MAGNIFICENT SIGHT.

The officers who had lined the landing steps meanwhile lined the pathway leading from the "shamiana" to the amphitheatre, and when the Royal party came out and ascended the dais it was a magnificent sight that met their eyes. The amphitheatre was crowded with a huge throng, and the lofty buildings which closed in the scene were packed with great numbers of people. The brilliant decorations were completed by the bright uniforms of the Viceroys' and Governor's Bodyguards and of the Cadets of the Rajkumar College in brilliant blue turbans and darker hued tunics who fringed the crowded space. The brilliant company from the "shamiana" filled up the dais in the rear of the Royal party. The Prince and the Viceroys stood in the centre of the dais, with the Princess on the right of His Royal Highness, Lord Lamington on the right of the Princess, and Lady Curzon on the Viceroys' left. The members of the Bombay Corporation waited immediately in front of the dais with the Municipal banner in their midst.

NOTES FROM "CAPITAL."

"Max" writes:— I feel heartily sorry for Sir Andrew Fraser over this affair of the latest unspcakably silly Carlyle circular. Sir Andrew is naturally bound by the traditions of the Service and must do all he can to stick up for his subordinates when it is at all possible for him to do so, or to cover the retreat of an understrapper when he has been caught doing an extremely foolish thing. This is part of the "dustoor" of his office which a Lieutenant-Governor can hardly get rid of, any more than he can extricate himself from the custom, after vigorously slating an official in a Resolution, of concluding with the customary paragraph thanking the condemned man for the fine work he has done in his department during the year.

I am not greatly concerned with the manner in which His Honor does his best to tone down and explain away the terms of Mr. Secretary Carlyle's confidential effusion to certain District Magistrates regarding the attitude they were to assume towards demonstrative students. The circular itself was a profound blunder in administrative Government. Sir Andrew Fraser himself would never have made such a mistake as to pen such a circular. I believe that none regrets its issue more than he does. And probably by this time Mr. Secretary Carlyle is a very sorry man over the part he has played in the whole exceedingly foolish affair. Mr. Pedlar's letter, with its "Marginally Noted Student," was also another blunder of the first degree. And then we see how one false step leads to another. Carlyle's epistle to Emerson (thanks to my friend "The Statesman" for pointing out the amusing parallel) not on this occasion addressed to Concord, but very far from it, seems to have inspired that District Magistrate who conduct perfectly assassine in its character.

This Emerson of Rungpur proceeds, on a list being furnished to him, at his peremptory request by the head master of the school, of some 60 boys to fine them Rs. 5 each for singing "Bande Mataram." For a Magistrate to try a boy for an imaginary offence in his absence and without hearing the defence; to pass a sentence and inflict a fine in such circumstances, is a most outrageous proceeding on the part of a judge. How does he propose to collect the fine? There is no legal machinery for doing so under such circumstances. During the time when Sir Barnes Peacock was Chief Justice in Bengal, a certain judge of the High Court thought fit to impose a fine of one rupee on a Court official for some little irregularity in connection with some Court document. The official felt insulted at being thus treated, as a menial servant. Sir Barnes, when the affair was brought to his notice wrote something to the following effect: "Mr. Justice—has fined—the sum of one rupee. How does he propose to collect it? I know of no other way than by deducting it from his salary, and I will take care that no such thing is done. Let the papers be sent back to the learned judge."

How will His Honor treat this Emerson affair? I do not know, but he would be well advised to let the whole matter drop into oblivion as quickly as possible. Let the circulars and letters referred to be treated as dead. We have no wish that the Carlyle and Emerson of Bengal should be treated according to their sins nor rewarded according to their iniquities. Let His Honor, if he chooses, do as a Scotch judge once did to a prisoner whom he wished to let off, pronounce a sentence of "Not Guilty, but don't do it again." The public are heartily tired of all this bungling business. Let the dead bury their dead. And let the administrative bunglers hide their unmissed heads for a season. Let them tarry at Jericho until their beads are grown, or at all events until they cut their wisdom teeth.

The National Fund.

AN APPEAL.

On the sixteenth day of November current, the National Fund will complete the first month of its auspicious existence. On that day the trustees of the Fund will publicly announce the total amount they have collected so far.

Our humble appeal to our patriotic countrymen, therefore, is that those who have promised contributions to the Fund, to fill up the coffers of the Motherland, but have not been able to do so would be pleased to send in their quota on or before the 16th current positively either by messenger or by postal money order, to the undersigned.

MANMATHA NATH MITRA, 34 Shyampukur Street. PASUPATTY NATH BOSE, 65 Bagbazar Street.

It is reported that Board of Directors of the East Indian Railway have decided to raise the salary of its Agent from Rs. 3,500 to Rs.4,000 a month.

The building work in connection with the Congress at Benares is being rapidly pushed forward. The Congress and the Exhibition Committee have employed two engineers. This year's Congress pandal will be original in design. It is to be a two storeyed building, the upper storey to be reserved for ladies and distinguished visitors.

UNITED PROVINCES LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

TWO NEW BILLS.

The United Provinces Legislative Council met Lucknow on the 8th His Honour Sir James La Touche presiding. The Hon'ble Mr. Holms, in introducing the Local and Rural Police Rates Bill, said that it was the first part of the measures designed to give greater financial security and clear administrative powers to the District Boards. The Bill enables Government to make a contract with each Board, on review of the rate income and other receipts and limits appropriations to the cost of certain defined services, such as districts posts and public roads. Boards which will still have surpluses after paying the appropriations will be left with those surpluses and the rest will receive a fixed grant-in-aid to bring their funds up to requirements.

In reply to speeches by hon'ble members, His Honour explained that the reason for continuing the authority to make appropriations was that it was necessary, as far as possible, to equalise the income of District Boards. Government was in correspondence with the Government of India regarding district posts, and His Honour had strong hopes that the Government of India would relieve the District Boards of the charge of district posts.

The motion introducing the Bill was put and agreed to, and the Bill was referred to a Select Committee.

In moving for leave to introduce the District Boards Bill, the Hon'ble Mr. Holms said that the Bill was the complement of the Local and Rural Police Rates Bill. It was proposed to make elections and appointments to District Boards and to abolish the Local Boards, which had been found of very little use. A second change, recommended by Government, was the appointment, as in Madras, of the District Magistrate as ex-officio Chairman.

The Hon'ble Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya said that if powers of electing their own Chairman were taken away from District Boards it would be a retrograde measure. This sentiment was voiced by other speakers, the Hon'ble Rai Sunder Lal Bahadur contending that the result of the measure would be to take away the sense of responsibility which was necessary to the proper conduct of the business of the Boards. The Lieutenant-Governor promised that the questions brought before the Council would be carefully considered in a Select Committee.

The Hon'ble Mr. Holms then introduced the Excise Law Amendment Act Bill, which is designed to give Government power to regulate the use of cocaine, and is on the lines of legislation already introduced in Bombay, Bengal and Burma. The speaker said that some urgency attached to this measure, owing to the prevalence of the cocaine habit in Benares. It was also reported that the habit of using cocaine as an intoxicant had spread to Lucknow, Cawnpore and Saranpur. It was proposed to declare cocaine an intoxicating drug, and to prohibit its sale except by licensed vendors for medicinal purposes.

The Bill was referred to a Select Committee, and it was arranged that it should be passed at the meeting of the Council early in December.

CENTRAL PROVINCES CROPS.

The second forecast on the prospects of the Til (sesamum) crop of the Central Provinces and Berar for 1905, states that on an average the crops ending 1903-04 the Central Provinces and Berar were 26.10 per cent. below the 10 year average, the 1904 crop in British India was 15.10 per cent. below the 10 year average. The condition of the crop up to the 1st week of that month. The present report contains approximate estimates of the area and outturn of the crop up to the end of September. In the first forecast it was estimated that the area under this crop in the Central Provinces and Berar would be larger than in the previous year, but this expectation has not been realized in Berar. The present estimates forecast for the Central Provinces an area of 886,422 acres, which is 3 per cent. larger than that of the preceding year and 23 per cent. above the average of the 10 years ending 1902-03. The estimate for Berar is 79,189 acres, which is 24 and 31 per cent., respectively, short of last year's area and the decennial average.

The monsoon, though late, was favourable for the sowing of the early variety. The light rainfall in the middle of the monsoon afforded ample opportunities for weeding and favoured the growth of the plants, but heavy and continuous rain in the second half of September greatly impeded sowings of the late variety, which accounts largely for the decrease in the area sown. The extension of cotton cultivation has also diminished the area available for til, especially in Wardha, Nagpur and the Berar districts. In Jabalpur, Hoshangabad and Nimar, where til is grown to a large extent, the contraction in the area is estimated to be from 2 to 9 per cent., while in Chanda, Raipur and Sambalpur, where the crop is important, the increase in the area sown is from 5 to 12 per cent. The crop suffered somewhat from heavy and continuous rain in September in Mandla, Nagpur, Chanda, Bhandara, Balaghat and Akola. Some damage was also caused by caterpillars in parts of Saugor and Bilaspur, and the crop was partly destroyed by the insect called "katwa" in the Harsud Tahsil of the Nimar District. Insects also caused some damage in Balaghat.

With the late variety only just appearing above ground, it is impossible to give any reliable forecast of the outturn. The estimates of outturn given in the appended statement are consequently of doubtful accuracy. It is anticipated that Jabalpur, Betul, Chhindwara, Raipur and Sambalpur will reap full crops (120) and nine districts a crop above the normal and the remaining four districts of the Central Provinces a normal crop.

In Berar insufficient rain in the middle of the monsoon and excessive rain in September have each in their turn caused some damage, and the crop is estimated at from 75 to 90. The estimates of the District Officers, combined according to the area under the crop in each district, point to an outturn of 112 per cent. of the normal in the Central Provinces and 31 per cent. in Berar. Favourable conditions during the next two months will probably improve the condition of the crop in districts where the reports are least hopeful. Clear weather has set in since the commencement of the current month, and if no damage is caused by insects or heavy rain, there is reason to hope that the outturn will be above the normal in the Central Provinces and better than that shown against the districts in Berar in the appended statement.

Correspondence.

THE FIRST INDIAN BOYCOTTER OF FOREIGN GOODS.

To The Editor.

Sir,—It may be a news to most of your readers that the first boycotting movement, which is now called the Swadeshi movement on the popular side, began as early as the year 1720 A.D., and the scheme was propounded by a profoundly learned sannyasi who was a native of Bengal and a Brahmin by caste.

Gourpada Swami was a Bengal ascetic who lived on the hill (Saptasringa) about 1730 in the time of the second Peshawa Bajirao (1720-1740). He lived in the Kalika tirtha and had many disciples among the Maharrata nobles.

Here is another extract to prove that the boycott movement was first inaugurated by the Bengali Swami:—

"Nearly thirty miles off from Nasik we visited the (Saptasringa) hill on which the tomb of Gourpada Swami was worshipped by the Maharratas. Much difficulty is found in forming a correct estimate of the characters of this extraordinary man. He was more of a statesman than of a religious mendicant.

Such was a Bengalee Sannyasi during the time of the mighty Peshawas. Let us all imitate the unflinching zeal, the uncommon perseverance, the unswerving energy, the indefatigable labours and the unselfish patriotism of Swami Gourpada, and be prepared to hazard our lives for the sacred and sublime cause of the Swadeshi movement which I believe to be a cause of righteousness.

THE ALLEGED POLICE ZULOOM CASE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

I stated in my last issue that the above sensational case were rejected by the District Magistrate, and how at last he agreed to fix the case for a week and to-day, Babu Kuntia Behari Mukerjee with Babu Provas Chandra Chatterjee and Jyotish Chandra Ghosh, pleaders, moved the District Magistrate on behalf of Durga Charan Baijy, the complainant, for transfer of the case to the file of some Magistrate other than the trying one on grounds which have already been reported in my previous communications.

Govt of India Press

ENQUIRY BY MR. HEWETT.

The Honble Mr. Hewett who has specially come down from Simla to enquire into the grievances of compositors and pressmen of the India Government Press and the causes which led to the lock-out, has we understand nearly completed his enquiry. The men at first wanted that they should be represented by Mr. A. K. Ghosh, but Mr. Hewett did not accede to this request. He, however, gave them sufficient guarantee that the enquiry would be fair and impartial.

Though the result of the enquiry is not out, we, however, learn that the authorities are not willing to take back the 7 men who were dismissed for attending the compositor's meetings, and it is also said that the body of compositors are determined not to join office unless those dismissed are readmitted.

The Bombay High Court re-opened on Monday last after the October Vacation.

The draft bill to amend the Presidency Banks Act will shortly be sent home for the approval of the India Office.

A Kulu correspondent writes: The Duff Dunbar suspension bridge, rebuilt by the 1st Sappers and Miners, has again been cracked badly by the earthquake which occurred on the 23rd ultimo. The road between Lari and Mangalaur is also blocked and rendered impassable for mule traffic; and for eight days and nights large boulders, the size of cotton bales, have been tumbling down from a height of 2,000ft.

The Bankura Outrage case.

JUDGMENT.

The following is the full text of the judgment delivered in the above case and referred to in our editorial column:—

Charge:—The two accused have been charged with having used criminal force to the complainant Ramoni Dassi on the 2nd August, 1905, knowing it likely that they would thereby outrage her modesty, and further with having wrongfully confined the complainant the said Ramoni Dassi in the break-down of the Railway train of which the first accused was the driver and the second accused the fireman.

Case for the Prosecution:—The prosecution alleges that on the 2nd August, 1905, at about 2-30 p. m., while the complainant, a young girl of about 15 years of age, was washing utensils in a ditch about 10 cubits off the rail road (at a place called Lapoor between the Railway stations of Bishenpore and Onda on the Bengal Nagpur Railway) after supplying the midday meal to her father-in-law, her husband and her other relatives, who were transplanting seedlings on their fields at a distance, an up goods train came in her sight. Seeing the train coming, the complainant stood up and was watching the train pass out of girlish curiosity about 10 cubits off the line. According to her, the first accused who was the driver of the train beckoned to her to come. She was frightened and moved towards the field away from the line, when the train was suddenly stopped. The complainant seeing the first accused come after her, began to run away but was overtaken by him on a field about 40 cubits from the line. She then cried aloud when the alarm was raised by P. W. I. The first accused forcibly dragged her some way when the 2nd accused (who was the brakeman to the engine), the guard and the fireman got down from the train and they with the first accused all forcibly put the complainant into the brakevan and carried her off to the next station, Onda, where they made her over to the Station Master.

Meanwhile the alarm having been taken up, two of the complainant's relations pursued the train and reached the Onda station a little after the train had left.

Statements of the accused:—The accused in their examination say that the woman was lying on the line to commit suicide, when the first accused stopped the train, and ordered the second accused to seize her, which order the second accused obeyed. The complainant was put to the brakevan by the second accused.

Points for determination:—The points for determination are:—(i) Whether the accused used any criminal force to the complainant, (ii) whether they knew it likely that the use of such force would outrage her modesty and (iii) whether the accused wrongfully confined the complainant in the brakevan of the train, between the time of her arrest and the making over of her to the Station Master of Onda.

Decisions thereon:—The decision of the Court on each of the above points is in the affirmative.

Reasons: First Point:—It is evident from the evidence of the eye-witnesses (Nos. I, II, III and IV) for the prosecution that the first accused got down from the engine, chased the complainant who was running away, caught hold of her, and forcibly dragged her, when the 2nd accused, the guard and the brakeman joined him.

The second accused admits having seized the complainant but under orders from the first accused.

The first accused in his examination disclaims having actually seized the complainant, his own witness (D. W. II and D. W. IV) depose having seen him actually seize her when first discovered. The complainant's story that she sobbed, cried and struggled with the first accused is corroborated not only by the prosecution but by the defence (D. Ws. II, III and IV), some of whom (D. Ws. III and IV) go so far as to say that she begged them to let her go as she did nothing. The deliberate arrest and forcibly dragging the complainant to the brakevan against her will and in spite of her entreaties show that both the accused intentionally used force to her. From her plight at the time, it appears that she was not only frightened and annoyed and injured by the action of the accused but that the action of the accused amounted to something graver than using criminal force as detailed below.

Second Point:—It has been established by the prosecution that the complainant belongs to respectable middle class society, and that like one belonging to that class always appeared in veil in public. It is also on record that the females of this class in the village of occurrence take meals to the fields for their relatives who work or supervise the work thereon. The above points have not been challenged by the defence at all. It has been proved by the prosecution that while the accused were catching hold of the complainant, they used such force that not only her veil but the clothes on the upper part of her person fell off. The latter surely is looked upon as an outrage to the modesty to women of any civilized country. In a country where pulling up of a woman's veil is looked upon as an outrage to female modesty, the accused were surely aware that not only this but their using such force as exposed the upper part of her person, was surely an outrage to her modesty. It also appears from the evidence for the prosecution as well as of the defence, that the complainant was forcibly lifted up to the brakevan. From the uncontradicted evidence for the prosecution, it appears that the two accused, the guard and the brakeman lifted the complainant there per force. D. W. II says that the trolleyman (D. W. III) and the brakeman (D. W. IV) lifted her therein. But D. W. III denies having taken any part in the affair, and this agrees with the story for the prosecution. D. W. IV contradicts the trolleyman and the guard and says that he himself alone caught the waist of the girl, and lifted her to the van in spite of her entreaties. As the evidence on this point is confused by the defence, the Court accepts the story for the prosecution, that all four lifted the girl to the brakevan per force. The brakevan was about a man's height, and from the way she was lifted by the waist as well as by other parts of her person, it will be obvious that her modesty was outraged.

Third Point:—The fact that the complainant was carried to the brakevan and confined therein is admitted by the defence. Again it has been pointed out that the complainant struggled, sobbed and begged to be let off when forced therein. This shows that she was prevented from going beyond the confines of the brakevan having been put therein per force. When once there, the train let off, she could not possibly have jumped off the train at the risk of her life.

Justification of the accused:—From the above, it will be seen that the main facts of the case, viz., of the arrest of the complainant by the accused, their forcibly dragging her against her will, their forcibly lifting her to the brakevan and confining her therein in spite of her protests are points admitted by the defence. It now remains to be seen what justification the accused had in their conduct.

When a young girl is run after by, is caught, and becomes the subject of force and restraint at the hands of a young man of the age of the 1st accused, and subsequently molested and confined by him and others, the burden of proof that the motive of the accused was innocent or actuated by good faith lies on the defence. If the motive be innocent, then the outrage to the modesty amounts to a mere technicality.

Plea of the accused:—The accused plead that the girl was "sleeping" on the line as will appear from Exbt. A. signed both by the 1st accused and by the guard (D. W. II). There is absolutely no evidence to corroborate their theory. Not an iota of evidence has been adduced by the defence to support this. True it may be that the 1st accused has been telling the story of the girl's attempt to commit suicide by sleeping on the rails from the time he was discovered catching hold of the complainant till his arrival at Onda. But this appears to be to find an excuse for his own conduct. For, first of all there must be some motive for the girl to commit suicide. According to the prosecution whose witnesses were very searchingly cross-examined by the ablest pleader of the local bar, who defended the accused—the complainant was a chaste and good girl perfectly happy with her husband and his relations and dearly loved by all of them. Previous to this incident, there was no threat, or no attempt by her, nor was there any rumour of her ever attempting to commit suicide. There is a total absence of any motive for her—a young girl of 15—to commit suicide and none has been suggested nor even ascribed nor sought to be proved by the defence. Secondly had the girl been bent on committing suicide, she would not have possibly selected a fine afternoon for the act, when her relations and other cultivators were working around the place of occurrence. No quarrel or no misunderstanding took place immediately before the occurrence for attempting a speedy suicide in broad daylight. Thirdly to sleep on the rails when they are very hot after a whole day's fierce sun is not a comfortable idea, as also according to P. W. I there is no place for sleeping on the rails.

Fourthly the suggestion that the complainant was sleeping there is not a sustained story. D. W. I says that the 1st accused did not tell him in what way the complainant attempted to commit suicide. D. W. II says that the 1st accused told him while discovered with the complainant that she threw herself on the line as the train was approaching her Surely throwing oneself on the rails at the approach of a train is not sleeping thereon.

The complainant had been telling the one story of her forcible capture for nothing even to the witnesses for the defence from the very beginning of the case and her story is borne out by her witnesses.

Again D. W. III did not hear of the theory of attempted suicide. He was the only eye witness who was not accused of any offence. The rest of the eye-witnesses of the defence were more or less implicated with the case, and hence their story should be accepted with great hesitation unless corroborated by independent evidence. They were all railway servants probably waiting to save the accused as well as themselves as much as possible. This will be evident from the admission of D. W. II that he attended the Court on the days of hearing of the case.

Motive of the accused:—It has been pressed by the defence, that as the complainant herself says in the first information she lodged with the Police (Exbt. I) that she was not ravished, the accused arrested her as she was attempting to commit suicide. It has been shown above that the theory of attempt at suicide does not bear scrutiny. Apart from the unwillingness of a Hindu girl to admit having been ravished by any one—far less by a Christian—lest she be outcasted and sunned by society for ever and given up by her husband, there are circumstances in this case, which made it impossible for the 1st accused to ravish her. It appears from the defence that they did not notice any one around or at the place of occurrence. The unchallenged testimony of the complainant that the 1st accused beckoned her to come and the subsequent stoppage of the train and other acts seem to be plausible facts, as the 1st accused was probably under the impression—like his own witnesses—that as there was none in the fields, his outrage on the girl could not be seen by outsiders. But as the girl being frightened ran away, the 1st accused also ran after her even then probably not noticing any outsiders on the fields. But as soon as he caught hold of the girl, she cried out and the alarm was raised by P. W. I to the cultivators working around. Apprehending the danger of having been seen the first accused could not proceed further in his act than the catching hold of the girl. At the same time, if this part of the story of the defence be believed the guard and the other railway employees in the train got down to see what had happened on account of the sudden stoppage of the train and discovered the girl in the clutches of the 1st accused, who had no alternative than to invent the story of her sleeping on the rails (for his own safety), with the admitted result that she was forcibly put into the train. The villagers could not come to the rescue as will appear from their evidence being terrified at the sight of the Guard and the Driver and the train having started immediately. The matter having been known the relatives of the complainant ran after the train and reached the Onda station after the train had left. The accused probably feared that had he let off the complainant at the place of occurrence, the charge against him would have been all the more strong and hence he being confounded, invented the absurd theory of her sleeping on the rails.

The second accused:—As regards the second accused who was working with the first as a fireman on the engine, the only inference that can be drawn is that he was cognizant with the motives of the 1st accused who left the engine before him. As soon as he scented danger for the 1st accused, he also got down to render what help he could in securing the girl and in putting her to the brakevan as soon as possible.

The petition of compromise:—A word or two may be necessary on the petition marked Exbt. B. It was alleged to have been filed by the complainant wanting to compound the case under s. 342 I. P. C. But the complainant who was searchingly examined on the point denies any knowledge whatever of the petition. The Mukhtas who was said to have identified the complainant says that the complainant did not consent to have the case compounded and that it was never read out to her. Probably it was an attempt to have the case compounded on the part of others who had no legal locus standi to do so. The value of the petition however amounts to nothing, when it is remembered that it was filed after the Dt. Magistrate on going through the complaint ordered the Court Sub-Inspector to add the charge under section 354 I. P. C. and the accused were being tried under that charge and under section 342 I. P. C. Moreover a mere glance at the complainant's first information will show that she complained of violence having been used to her, though she was not actually ravished. Her deposition in court supports the complaint she lodged with the Police and there is ample independent evidence to show that the case comes under section 354 I. P. C.

Conclusion:—For the above reasons, I find that there was no justification for the first accused to use criminal force to the complainant and to confine her in the brakevan. His actions have amounted to an outrage to the modesty of the complainant, and her wrongful confinement. The second accused has deliberately assisted the first in his acts, knowing that there was no justification in them, and is therefore as much guilty as the first. I therefore find both of them guilty under sections 354 and 342 I. P. C.

Sentence:—As regards the sentence, the Court takes into consideration the facts that the father of the first accused had been a Deputy Assistant Commissary on the Madras Establishment of H. M's. Indian Military Force, as will appear from the warrant of appointment filed by the 1st accused. He has been put to some pecuniary loss in having had to defend his case by the ablest pleaders of the bar and a large number of Mukhtars. Moreover any sentence of conviction will mean loss of present employment for him and social stigma.

After therefore giving the case a most careful and anxious consideration, the Court direct that the first accused Robert Bailie Forsyth be made to undergo simple imprisonment for one month and to pay a fine of Rupees two hundred only (in default to undergo one month's additional simple imprisonment); and the second accused Najir Sheikh to undergo one month's rigorous imprisonment sections 354 and 342 I. P. C. The 21st October, 1905.

(Sd.) Charu Chandra Mukerji, Deputy Magistrate.

Bankura,

Alleged abuse by a Ticket Collector

A "BANDE MATARAM" INCIDENT.

ATTITUDE OF THE E. B. S. R. AUTHORITIES.

On the 16th October last, when people were pouring down to Calcutta from different parts of the country in order that they might be present at the meeting in the house of our esteemed fellow-townsmen, Roy Pashuputy Nath Bose, there occurred at the Belliaghata station what but for certain fortunate circumstances would have resulted in a very serious riot. Some of the passengers of the train which reached the Belliaghata station at 5 p. m. shouted out "Bande Mataram" on its arrival. This appears to have disturbed the mental equilibrium of a Eurasian Platform Inspector of the name of Hayes. Why of all men a member of the Eurasian class should be agitated or exercised at the mention of "Bande Mataram" it is, for obvious reasons, difficult to conceive. Mr. Hayes upon hearing what has become the national cry alike of the Hindus and the Mahomedans in Bengal, is reported to have used such language as would perhaps bring the blush of shame on the cheeks of a great many of even his denomination. He exclaimed, as will appear from the evidence of some of the passengers, that the Bengalees are "sons of * * * and deserve to be hammered." This matter was brought to the notice of the railway authorities by Babu Mohendra Nath Mukerjee, a Government pensioner (from the Mint) and Secretary of the Passengers' Association, and also by Babu Kally Charan Sanyal, a legal practitioner of the Sealdah Police Court, by separate letters. Surprisingly enough the Traffic Superintendent of the Eastern Bengal State Railway without hearing what Mohendra Babu or any body else, who was present on the occasion, had to say, wrote back to say that nothing had happened. To this Mohendra Babu replied that he was not aware of any "bona fide" inquiry being held in this case "as none of the passengers had been called upon to be present at the investigation with the witnesses to prove the serious allegation against Mr. Hayes. Upon this the Traffic Superintendent agreed to reopen the question but on the following condition:—

"I beg to inform you that the Railway is not prepared to hear counsel, but will record depositions of persons who heard the expression used by Mr. Hayes; not second-hand, but direct from Mr. Hayes' lips."

Mohendra Babu with a number of witnesses and accompanied by Mr. A. C. Banerjee, Bar-at-Law, went to the Belliaghata station last Monday—the day next for the inquiry. On their arrival there, they were met by two Railway officials the name of one of whom it appears, is Mr. Murray. Mr. Banerjee said that he was brought there not to address them on behalf of the Passengers' Association, but to be present at the inquiry so that he might put or suggest questions, if necessary, to enable the parties concerned to get at the real truth. Mr. Murray, for reasons best known to himself, said that he would not allow that. To this Mr. Banerjee asked what objection there could be to the procedure suggested by him if the Railway authorities were really anxious to get the truth. He was, however, told that it would lead to a good deal of waste of time. This, however, led Mr. Banerjee to point out to the two Railway officials some what indignantly that he did not know whether or not they had any training in eliciting evidence; that he presumed that they had none while he had, and that if the real intention of the Railway authorities was not to whitewash a fault but to get at the whole truth there could be no earthly objection to allowing him to interrogate the witnesses if necessary. It would lead to save time and not to waste it. After considerable discussion the Railway officials agreed to allow him to be present and take down the evidence. The following is among the evidence taken down by him:—

Beni Madhab Mukherjee, Asst. Station Master, Belliaghata.—I was on duty on the 16th October. Some 40 or 50 men were passing along the road, shouting "Bande Mataram"; at about 12 or 1 o'clock, when hearing the cry I came out. Mr. Hayes who was then waiting behind me said that these Bengalees were sons of * * * and should be hammered for making this row. (Mr. Murray—We don't want this.) Q.—Was there any train near the platform or passenger there? —No. But there were other Railway officials.

(Cross-examined by Mr. Murray.) Q.—Did you hear Mr. Hayes use abusive language between 4 and 5 p. m.?

A.—No, as I was at the other end of the platform, but I heard (stopped.)

Mr. Murray.—We need not take down the 1st portion of his evidence as it was nothing to do with the enquiry.

(N. B.—Ye plea of Mr. Hayes being that his observations were directed against a few Bengalees, with whom he had some dispute and regarding whom he was talking to one or two of his conferees.)

Kally Oh. Sanyal.—I am a Legal practitioner, Sealdah Police Court. When I got down here at about 5 p. m. in front of the booking office some passengers on getting out of the train, cried out "Bande Mataram". One Eurasian standing near the clock on the platform, whom I subsequently discovered to be the Platform Inspector of this station, and whom I have seen even just now in the station, seemed to have been enraged by these words and I was abusing the passengers saying the Bengalees are sons of * * * and deserve to be hammered." He repeated these words and used other words also which I do not remember. I did not care to notice the other words as these sufficiently enraged me. At that time I saw this gentleman (pointing to Babu Mohendra Nath Mukerjee) and called the attention of other gentlemen also. Then we tried to find out the Station Master but we heard that he was not at the station. Then we concluded to report the matter to the Head office at Sealdah and to the District officers. This gentleman (Babu Mohendra Nath Mukerjee) having undertaken to do so, we gave him our names and addresses.

Mohendra Nath Mukerjee, (Govt. pensioner from the Mint).—I missed the 4-10 p. m. train and being too ill I was waiting in the intermediate waiting-room for the next train which leaves here at 5-40. Shortly after, an up-train came in and some passengers cried out "Bande Mataram" from the breakvan side. That noise attracted me and I went and stood near the door of the waiting-room. I found Mr. Hayes standing close to the intermediate ticket-room where the clock was, facing southwards towards the brakevan. No sooner than was the cry made that gentleman said that "natives are sons of * * * and they should be hammered." Some passengers alighted opposite to where he stood. He called them to come and see me in order that I might inquire if they had also heard these words. They came out to meet me outside the station alongside of the rail-then and asked me what could be done in this case. I told them to seek for the Station Master and report the matter. One porter was asked if the Station Master was in the station, but he unfortunately told us that he was not in the station. We made up our mind to report the matter to the District Traffic Superintendent. When the 5-40 train was at the platform I came onto the platform to catch it and found a tall gentleman, who afterwards, I discovered, was the Traffic Inspector, making a row with one of the clerks of the District Traffic Superintendent's office, which led me to proceed to the spot with several other passengers. One out of those who accompanied me and who intended to travel by the down train, shouted "Bande Mataram". The Traffic Inspector lost his temper at this and drove away the passengers in a very rough tone. I can recognise the T. I. although I came to find out who he was afterwards. When the T. I. and T. office Babu were talking there were several of the station staff, and no other passengers were there. After this I got into the train.

(Cross examined by Mr. Murray.)

I knew Hayes as I was a daily passenger, and I knew who he was. I did not make any reference to Hayes personally either at the time or subsequently in this connection. The words I have given are exactly the words he used.

(A document shown.)

This was signed by me. The words "Bengalees are big fools" I did not myself hear but I was told by others that Hayes used them. Some passengers said that the words "Bengalees are big fools" were not had also been uttered. My not hearing these words may be accounted for by the possibility of the noise of the Engine and the rush of passengers.

Bishnu Ch. Bannerjee.—I am a Booking clerk here. I was at the intermediate ticket-window. Few of the passengers, about 4 or 5, came and told me that the Platform Inspector had abused them by saying "these Bengalees are sons of * * * and they should be hammered." I told them to go to the Station Master as I had nothing to do with it. Handing the cash to the Head Booking Clerk I was going out when I saw the Head Booking clerk and I told him what the passengers were complaining. Then he asked me what all that was about and I explained to him everything. (To Mr. Murray) I heard nothing of the abusive language myself.

(Here Mr. Murray stopped him by saying "We don't want your evidence.")

Witness added "one Manmatha Babu came and asked me if what was being complained of was true. When I said that people had been complaining against Hayes, he said, "well, in that case it would be best to report the matter and not to create a row in the station."

Radhica Prosad Moitra.—I am a pleader of Alipur Judge's Court, but I practice in the Munsiff's Court at Baruipur. I arrived here at 5 p. m. by up-train. Near the gate through which intermediate passengers pass a gentleman was using abusive language. He shouted, "These are all sons of * * * and ought to be hammered." As I was going away this gentleman (pointing to Mohendra Babu) called me and others and asked me and others what could be done. Then he enquired whether the station master was present or not, and learnt that he was not present. It was settled that the matter should be reported to the Railway authorities, and he took our addresses.

(Cross-examined.)

Near the gate where tickets are collected there was, as usual, a rush of passengers and I was detained for about 5 or 10 minutes. I heard Hayes use those words perhaps once,—only once. He, however, made use of other abusive language in a softer tone. I do not remember if any European or Eurasian was standing near Hayes at the time.

TALE OF THE HAUNTED HOUSE.

The "Occult Review" publishes the following communicated by a reader. It is striking and certainly gruesome. She writes:—

I was told the following remarkable story of a haunted house by Mrs. Lascelles, mother of Captain Lascelles, the whilom tenant. The Editor has the real names of those concerned, with the exception of the servant, whose name and address are at present unknown to me.

Mrs. Lascelles is a woman of the world and not at all the type usually associated with foolish belief in the "not-understood."

Captain Lascelles and his wife, on their return from a prolonged tour in the East, decided to live for a time in town, and much searching selected a charming house in a well-known quarter.

It had not been occupied for some time (for in good order, and reason was given), was in good order, and gave promise of being in all ways a delightful home.

Servants were engaged among others an excellent cook, a capable and steady Scotsman.

Captain Lascelles as a thoughtful and literary man found in a fine library the surroundings fitted to his taste, and spent much of the late evenings there in study and writing.

AN UNKNOWN PRESENCE.

The first few evenings, from ten to midnight, passed without incident of a definite kind. But Captain Lascelles found himself constantly interrupted in his thought by a feeling of not being alone in the room, so much so that he once or twice turned in his Voltaire chair to see if by any chance his wife had entered the room quietly. It was large and thickly carpeted, and the writing table occupied a recess. There was no one, and he attributed the sensation to fatigue and the sudden change from a busy wandering life to one quiet and contemplative.

THE SHAPE OF SIN.

Next morning brought a climax. The cook after the orders for the day were given told Mrs. Lascelles she wished to leave at once. "I have no fault to find with the place or the other servants, but I cannot stay here."

"Will you not tell me your reason, Mrs. M'Laren?" said her mistress. "Perhaps I can make matters right for you. I am unwilling to part with such a good servant as you are."

THE PREVIOUS TENANT.

Captain Lascelles had seen too much to doubt the woman's earnestness and real distress. The memory of his own feelings also helped him to the instant decision to leave the house at once. The servants were sent away on board wages, and he and Mrs. Lascelles went to a bachelor friend who lived not far from St. George's Gate.

side be your doom. The little dog was wiser than you were; it saw, that night it barked in the next room." Now no mention had been made of anything of this. How did the medium know of the dog and its terror?"

After this interview Captain Lascelles went to the landlord, and told him he did not intend to occupy the house, although he would pay the rent. The man looked perturbed, and Captain Lascelles drew a bow at a venture. "Why did you not tell me the house was haunted?"

"Because I did not believe it. I thought it nonsense when the last tenant said the same thing as you do. It remained empty for some time, then I had the whole place done up. And refurnished the library," he added.

"Why did you do that?" queried Captain Lascelles. "Was it there your previous tenant committed suicide?"

"How did you know that?" said the landlord in amazement. Then Captain Lascelles told him the story. He confessed it was quite true: a previous tenant, with a very evil reputation, cut his throat after trying to murder a friend. Captain Lascelles never again entered the house:

Alleged Students' Case at Madaripur

At a students' meeting held at College Square on Thursday evening under the presidency of Babu Narsh Chandra Sen M. A., B. L., the following resolution was passed:—"That the students of Calcutta do express their hearty sympathy with the students of Madaripur for the trouble they have been put to, and that a telegram to this effect be sent to them by this meeting."

In moving this resolution Babu Khiti Mohan Sen narrated an incident which had happened at Madaripur. A European employe of Messrs. Landale, Clark and Co, Madaripur, while passing along the road came across a student of the local H. E. School, who was on his way back home from the school, and pulled the latter's umbrella from behind his back. The boy thought that some school boy was doing so in jest and he held it fast. This enraged the adventurous white gentleman and he snatched away the umbrella from the boy's feeble grasp.

The Head Master replied courteously that he had heard a different version of the case and that, if necessary, the European might come and see him. The white man demurred at this reply. In the meantime a Chhaprasi of his who had gone out on some errand came back and reported to his master that he had been beaten by somebody. The master at once reported the matter to the authorities. Upon this the Inspector of Schools came down to Madaripur to hold a departmental enquiry.

At the close of the meeting Babu Phani Bhushan Banerjee announced that Babu Subodh Chandra Mullick had offered one lakh of Rupees towards the establishment of a "National University". This welcome in telligence was received with tremendous shouts of "Bande Mataram."

After Babu Ramakanta Roy and the President had addressed the meeting the gathering dispersed.

About 70 lakhs of tolahs of silver have been purchased by the Government of India during the past week for immediate coinage into rupees.

Kolagarath Velu Nair, amshom peon of Kotal Amshom, Calicut, was fatally mauled by a tiger on Monday last.

An important forthcoming work of the Imperial Meteorological Department is a meteorological and climatological atlas of India, the preparation of which is in the hands of Sir John Elliot, K. C. I. E., the late Meteorological Reporter to the Government of India, who is now at Home on retirement.

A man named Hughes was on the 6th sentenced by the District Magistrate of Bangalore to six months rigorous imprisonment, for forging a signature and thereby obtaining money on false pretences from various residents of the Station. It appeared that Hughes had drawn up a petition purporting to be from a woman in poor health and with two children, who wished for the journey-money to join her husband at some distant station. In the petition it was asserted that the Friend in Need Society was advancing half the money. The scheme worked gaily until a doubtful resident wrote to General Fisher on the subject, when the fraud was exposed and Hughes arrested by the Police and made an example of.

AN UNEXPECTED OFFER

A Burma Timepiece to be given free to every purchaser of this watch as a present up to 30th Nov. 1905. GOLFMAN'S WATCH, keyless jewelled, Strong, medium size, 36 hours timekeeper, Gtd. for 4 yrs. Price Rs. 4-8, postage As. 8. S. SEN & CO., 8-2, Ram Krishna Bagchi's Lane, Beadon-Square, Calcutta.

Grand Money Prizes.

Rs 5000 will be given away on the 30th Decem ber 1905, by drawing on the Art Union System in the presence of a 1st class Magistrate, and other respectable men. The distribution of prizes is guaranteed, and it has been registered under the act of British Government. One free prize ticket will be given to the purchaser of each of the following articles: (1) The Ky Regulator Keyless O. F. lever watch, very strong and durable guaranteed for 5 years Rs. 5 Do Fancy Dial Rs. 5-8 (2) The Patent Lever Roskopf system watch, with 2 rubies guaranteed for 5 yrs Rs. 5 Do Fancy Dial Rs. 5 As 8 (3) The stop watch, Keywinding with a stop action guaranteed for five years with a fancy case Rs. 6 only (4) Wrist watch keyless, O. F. lever, strong and durable, guaranteed for six years with a beautiful strap Rs. 7 only (5) The Magic Pen a boon to the educated class Rs. 7 (6) Faal Oil very useful to make the mustache long and beautiful Rs. 2 per phial (7) Hair C refreshing and cooling Pills Rs. 2 per bottle (8) The Ayurvedic Tonic Pills, produce 5 seeds of pure blood in the body in one month Price Rs. 2-8 per box. Those who send orders for 4 articles at a time will get a free prize ticket and beautiful gold gilt chair-gates, prizes are as follows:—1st prize of Rs. 1000 cash; 2nd prize of Rs. 500 cash; 3rd prize of Rs. 250 cash; 4th prize of Rs. 150 cash; 5th prize of Rs. 100 cash; 10 prizes of Rs. 50 each; 15 prizes of Rs. 20 each; 20 prizes of Rs. 10 each; 50 prizes of Rs. 4 each; 900 prizes of Rs. 2 each. Apply to: THE SECRETARY, The Registered Trading Company, Howrah (near) Parkash.

THE VICTORIA CHEMICAL WORKS.

OUR INCOMPARED BLEND. MEVORS is the ideal remedy for the distressing consequences of the early excesses of youth. It may be taken with great benefit by ladies during pregnancy and after delivery, and is invaluable to those who have to sustain prolonged mental labour. District and Sessions Judge P. S. S. Esq., C. S., U. P., writes:—"Your excellent remedy named MEVORS is far beyond my expectation that Rs. 3 would do such good to me as Rs. 20 would do. I could not bring forth my hair a year ago, and in the remotest part amongst such as have hitherto been discovered. Price of MEVORS ONE Rupee per phial. Postage for 10 to 3 phials FIVE ANNAS only. ASTHMA and all lung diseases are sure to be cured by our well-tried Specific Price Rs. 5. As a valuable cure it is unrivalled and unequalled. H. Gouddo Esq., Hugly, writes:—"Your Specific for ASTHMA has cured my young wife completely." DIABETES accompanied with burning of the palm and the soles; excessive thirst; nintation and Saccharine matter with the urine, will be radically cured by our specific. Price Rs. 3. A. Chaturmahal Esq.; 1st grade District Munsif, M. Jure, writes:—"Your specific for DIABETES is undoubtedly a boon to the public." HYDROCELE, most obstinate and of long standing will be cured by our specific without interfering with one's daily avocation. Price Rs. 5. Beware of spurious imitations and worthless substitutes of our world renowned specific. Write only to: I. O. MOOKERJEE AND CO THE VICTORIA CHEMICAL WORKS, Ranaghat, Bengal.

The Word, "Incurable" HAS BEEN BANISHED FROM THE MEDICAL VOCABULARY SINCE THE DISCOVERY OF

Healing Balm

For it cures Gonorrhoea, "Glee and kindred Genito-Urinary" diseases that so long defied medical skill. It is a deadly enemy of Gonococci, the Gonorrhoea-bacillus. Has not hitherto been known to fall in any cases however complicated. Removes immediately all complaints at urination. Is equally effective in chronic and acute cases. It destroys the susceptibility to stricture, retention of urine, penifistula, and other horrible effects of gonorrhoea. At once removes all agonising symptoms and to speak of itching and inflammation and ulceration of the man affected. Restores, without fail, the vital power, buoyancy and the normal desires Brings life to the living dead. MITIGATES THE PENALTIES OF SIN AND BRINGS HOPE TO THE HOPELESS

- 1. One of the leading Medical Journals the "Indian Lancet" says:—"We have no hesitation in saying that R. Laugin and Co's Healing Balm is a safe and reliable therapeutic agent and one on which medical men and the general public may without any doubt, depend." 2. Dr. K. P. Gupta, Col. I. M. S. M. A., M. D. F. R. C. S. (Edin) S. Sc (Cambridge) P. H. D. (Cantab) late Sanitary Commissioner of Bengal, etc. says:—"Healing Balm is almost a specific for Gonorrhoea and may be safely and strongly recommended for that troublesome and obstinate disease." 3. Dr. B. K. Bose, Surgeon Major M. D. C. M. I. M. S., etc., says:—"I have tried Healing Balm in cases of acute Gonorrhoea with success." 4. Dr. U. Gupta M. D. M. C. (Edin) F. C. S. (London) etc. says:—"I tried R. Laugin and Co's Healing Balm and found it really a very excellent medicine for both chronic and acute Gonorrhoea." 5. Dr. G. C. Bez Borna, L. R. C. P. (Edin), L. F. P. C. and L. M. (Glasgow) says:—"I tried Healing Balm. It is a splendid remedy for the diseases of Genito-urinary tract and it acts like a charm. Its diuretic property is well marked." 6. Dr. Edwin S. Pashong, M. D., P. & S. London, says:—"I have much pleasure in stating that Healing Balm certainly has a most striking effect in Urinary infections. No case will be found to resist its beneficial and specific effect." 7. Dr. S. Chackrabarty, M. D. Late Ass't in the Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital London, says:—"I cordially recommend this Healing Balm. It has been found efficacious in cases of chronic acute Gonorrhoea. The sensation of burning ceases in 24 hours." 8. Dr. R. G. Ka, L. R. C. P. (Edin) Secretary, Calcutta Medical School etc., says:—"PRICE 2 OZ. PHIAL RS. 2-8 EACH. 1 OZ. PHIAL Re. 1-12 EACH. Commission of Rs. 2-8-0, Re. 1-12-0, and 1/2, allowed respectively for a dozen, half-a-dozen, 10 quart dozen for 6 phials and Re. 1-12, As. 13 and As. 6 for dozen, half-a-dozen and quarter dozen respectively. Postage and packing not extra.

EBONY, OR The Indian Hairdy, The most desirable hairdy ever discovered, sure to give satisfaction to all who use it. Spoken of by the press and the public. Price—Each 8-4 with 2 boxes Re. 2-0, postage etc. As. 0-8. R. LAUGIN & CO. CHEMISTS, 148 BOWBAZAR STREET, SEALDAH, CALCUTTA.

MARVELLOUSLY CHEAP! Consignments of Selected patterns of Rolled Gold frame &c. newly received. To secure a suitable pair, please apply for a price list containing particulars on sight of Messrs. MULLICK & Co. Opticians, 37 Swallow Lane, Calcutta.

SWADESHI ORNAMENT.

Dear friends, don't waste your purse by feeding the goldsmiths for nothing. Now the time has come when we should not waste our money unnecessarily. Instead of wasting our money in time of need, it will prove very useful in time of need. If you are anxious to know as to how you can best please your family without doing that we advise you to purchase our Swadeshi made pure Chemical-Gold ornaments a complete set of which will cost you less than what is required in only one ordinary ornament of gold. We have got first class certificate from the Indian Industrial Exhibition for the shape and glaze of our ornaments which are just like those of pure gold ornaments. For particulars see our price list.

K. SMITH & Co., Proprietor, P. C. Dass, No 344, Upper Chipur Road, Beadon Square, Calcutta.

Rare Opportunity.

Why be weak or weakminded, pay nothing. You have simply to write to the unmentioned address and you will get by return of post an excellent book in English (p. 100) post paid. It will answer all your questions relating to your mind and body and will give you rules based on moral principle to guide your health, wealth and prosperity. Kabirai Manishankar Govindji Atank-Nigraha Pharmacy, Harrison Road, Barabazar, Calcutta.

We have always in stock a large collection of Homoeopathic Books and genuine Homoeopathic Medicines for sale at moderate prices. KING & CO. Homoeopathic Chemists & Booksellers, 33 Harrison Road, Calcutta.

The Word, "Incurable" HAS BEEN BANISHED FROM THE MEDICAL VOCABULARY SINCE THE DISCOVERY OF

Healing Balm

For it cures Gonorrhoea, "Glee and kindred Genito-Urinary" diseases that so long defied medical skill. It is a deadly enemy of Gonococci, the Gonorrhoea-bacillus. Has not hitherto been known to fall in any cases however complicated. Removes immediately all complaints at urination. Is equally effective in chronic and acute cases. It destroys the susceptibility to stricture, retention of urine, penifistula, and other horrible effects of gonorrhoea. At once removes all agonising symptoms and to speak of itching and inflammation and ulceration of the man affected. Restores, without fail, the vital power, buoyancy and the normal desires Brings life to the living dead. MITIGATES THE PENALTIES OF SIN AND BRINGS HOPE TO THE HOPELESS

- 1. One of the leading Medical Journals the "Indian Lancet" says:—"We have no hesitation in saying that R. Laugin and Co's Healing Balm is a safe and reliable therapeutic agent and one on which medical men and the general public may without any doubt, depend." 2. Dr. K. P. Gupta, Col. I. M. S. M. A., M. D. F. R. C. S. (Edin) S. Sc (Cambridge) P. H. D. (Cantab) late Sanitary Commissioner of Bengal, etc. says:—"Healing Balm is almost a specific for Gonorrhoea and may be safely and strongly recommended for that troublesome and obstinate disease." 3. Dr. B. K. Bose, Surgeon Major M. D. C. M. I. M. S., etc., says:—"I have tried Healing Balm in cases of acute Gonorrhoea with success." 4. Dr. U. Gupta M. D. M. C. (Edin) F. C. S. (London) etc. says:—"I tried R. Laugin and Co's Healing Balm and found it really a very excellent medicine for both chronic and acute Gonorrhoea." 5. Dr. G. C. Bez Borna, L. R. C. P. (Edin), L. F. P. C. and L. M. (Glasgow) says:—"I tried Healing Balm. It is a splendid remedy for the diseases of Genito-urinary tract and it acts like a charm. Its diuretic property is well marked." 6. Dr. Edwin S. Pashong, M. D., P. & S. London, says:—"I have much pleasure in stating that Healing Balm certainly has a most striking effect in Urinary infections. No case will be found to resist its beneficial and specific effect." 7. Dr. S. Chackrabarty, M. D. Late Ass't in the Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital London, says:—"I cordially recommend this Healing Balm. It has been found efficacious in cases of chronic acute Gonorrhoea. The sensation of burning ceases in 24 hours." 8. Dr. R. G. Ka, L. R. C. P. (Edin) Secretary, Calcutta Medical School etc., says:—"PRICE 2 OZ. PHIAL RS. 2-8 EACH. 1 OZ. PHIAL Re. 1-12 EACH. Commission of Rs. 2-8-0, Re. 1-12-0, and 1/2, allowed respectively for a dozen, half-a-dozen, 10 quart dozen for 6 phials and Re. 1-12, As. 13 and As. 6 for dozen, half-a-dozen and quarter dozen respectively. Postage and packing not extra.

EBONY, OR The Indian Hairdy, The most desirable hairdy ever discovered, sure to give satisfaction to all who use it. Spoken of by the press and the public. Price—Each 8-4 with 2 boxes Re. 2-0, postage etc. As. 0-8. R. LAUGIN & CO. CHEMISTS, 148 BOWBAZAR STREET, SEALDAH, CALCUTTA.

The Simplex Typewriters

Mark a new era in these writing machines. They do practically the same work as the most expensive machines, yet the price is within the reach of all. No. 2 1/2 Takes Note size paper and prints all capital and small letter figures and stops. Price Rs. 14 or 9 V. P. P. Rs. 15. No. 5 Takes Foolscap size and prints as above. Price Rs. 25 or 17 V. P. P. Rs. 27. The Office Printing Unit No. 0. Contains a 5 A font of solid rubber type, two sets of figures, signs and sp. ces (about 195 pieces in all), ink-pad, two-line holder and tweezers. Perfect card printer. Rs. 1-8 or by V. P. P. Rs. 1-11. The Office Printing Unit No. 2. Contains a 5 A font capital and small letters, two sets of figures, signs and spaces (about 250 pieces) superior three-line holder and other accessories. Rs. 4-8 or by V. P. P. Rs. 4-14. The Minerva Fountain Pen—Best evulcaute barrel duplex feed, 14 carat gold nib iridium tipped. Guaranteed perfect flow. Platin barrel. Rs. 3 chased barrel Rs. 3-4. The Chronos Lever Watch—Goes 30 hours with one winding. Steamwind, excellent time keeper. Price Rs. 2-14 or by V. P. P. Rs. 3-2. The Ansonia Lever Watch. A grand time keeper, showy strong and lasting. Rs. 3-12. The Roskopf Lever Watch. A very strong and serviceable watch. Rs. 4-0, 4-8 and 5-0. Rubber Stamps, oval or shield and garter with pads and ink complete. Rs. 1-8. DESIGNS ON APPLICATION. Chatterjee Bros. & Co., 67B Kutighat Street, BARNAGORE, CALCUTTA.

THE MAHAT ASRAM.

HINDOO GRNTS BOARDING AND LODGING, 9, Cornwallis St., Calcutta. RESPECTABLE Gentlemen and Zemindars R. visiting Calcutta will find it very comfortable. Well ventilated and furnished rooms. Position central. Owing to extensive patronage, a family quarter has been lately added; where strict privacy is guaranteed. Timings ready at 1-30 P. M., Dinner at 6 P. M. Trial Solicited.

DR. PAUL'S PHTHISIS INHALATION.

A new Remedy for Consumption. All Cou's sumptive patients to know that Dr. Paul's 'Phthisis Inhalation' kills the specific germs (bacilli) of Consumption and thereby induces prompt and radical cure in the early stage of the disease. In the more advanced stage the Inhalation checks its further progress at once and brings them round gradually in a short time. A trial would prove its beneficent results even in the last stage when life is certain to be prolonged by its use. One bottle is quite enough for a patient. Medical practitioners would do well to give the Inhalation a trial in their practice. Rs. 5 per bottle. V. P. P. Annas. 12 extra. Apply to Dr. S. C. PAUL, L. M. S. (Specialist in Diseases of Liver and Lungs.) 1, Doctor's Lane, Tattolah, P. O. Itally, Calcutta. Telegraphic Address, "Dr. Paul," Tattolah, Calcutta. MEDICAL OPINION:—Dr. Hem Chandra Dutta, L. M. S., Medical Officer, Bhawanee Doyal Singh's Charitable Dispensary, Calcutta, writes:—"I have tried your 'Phthisis Inhalation' in several cases of consumption with the most satisfactory results. I have found that before the use of your Inhalation in the lungs the 'Inhalation' is very efficacious. I heartily recommend it to the public. Our professional brethren would do well to give this remedy a fair trial in their practice. Please send me again a bottle of your Inhalation per V. P. P. for another patient of mine and I will be obliged." Dr. A. N. Roy Chowdhury, M. B., Calcutta, writes:—"I have tried your 'Phthisis Inhalation' in several cases of consumption and I am glad to say the results have been highly satisfactory in the first stage of the disease. I always recommend it to my patients. Please supply a bottle of your 'Inhalation' to the bearer whose brother has been suffering from consumption for the last five months and oblige." Dr. Edujee Cowsjee, L. M. S., Sir Jamsetjee's Sanitarium, Khandalla, Bombay Presidency, writes:—"As I have found your 'Phthisis Inhalation' beneficial, I always recommend it to my patients. Please send me per V. P. P. one bottle of your Inhalation for my wife who has been suffering from the symptoms of the first stage of consumption."

BEFORE BUYING

Homoeopathic Medicines PLEASE COMPARE OUR PRICES DRAM 5 AND 6 PICE for Guaranteed Genuine Medicines. Cloture and Family box with 12, 24, 30, 48, 60, and 104 phials of medicines, a guide and a drop conductor. Rs. 2, 3, 3-10, 5-3, 6-4, and 11-8 respectively. V. P. postage and packing extra. Illustrated Catalogue free on application. CHATTERJEE & FRIEND, 90 Beadon Street Calcutta.

5 YEAR'S STANDING DR. BISWAS'S ACIDITY PILL

That well-known and infallible remedy cures ACIDITY, RADICALLY and MAGICALLY all kinds of DYSPEPSIA and INDIGESTION. Its effect is permanent. It is prepared from harmless and indigenous ingredients, so it can be safely administered to any patient, even to pregnant woman. The invariable success of the Pill emboldens me to declare that in case of failure the price should be refunded. Many respectable and leading gentlemen bear testimony to its marvellous effects; from them I mention only the following:—Hon'ble Mr. Chitambar, Hon'ble Guru Frossad Sen, Bankipora, Raj P. N. Banerjee, Babbar, Executive Engineer, Raj Rajendra Mohan Banerjee of Aitapora (Farore), Babu Lalli Mohan Banerjee Secretary to the Oomshabar Raj, Tarit Kanit Bakshi, Professor, Jubbulpore College, Milmond Deb, Deputy Magistrate, Kanar Hemendra Kumar Deb, Sovalabar P. J., and Bhabatosh Banerjee, Deputy Magistrate, Dacca. Those who have tried all kinds of Allopathic Homoeopathic, Ayurvedic and patent medicines, and have received no benefit should give a trial to DR. BISWAS'S ACIDITY PILL. Price Rs. 0-5 per box. Postage and packing extra. Dr. H. Biswas, Amrita Bazar Medical Hall, Amrita Bazar P. O. (1905)

THE EASTERN BENGAL AND ASSAM GAZETTE, NOV. 4.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Mr. A. H. Ouning, I.C.S., on return from leave, is appointed to officiate as Magistrate and Collector, Rangpur. Mr. F. Emerson, I.C.S., Officiating Magistrate and Collector, Rangpur, is appointed to officiate as Magistrate and Collector, Rashahi. Mr. L. O. Clarke, I.C.S., on return from leave, is appointed to officiate as Magistrate and Collector, Mymensingh.

Mr. J. F. Dickinson, Asst. Supt. of Police, Backergunge, is granted privilege leave for two months. Srijut Rajani Kanta Bardalai, Extra Assistant Commissioner, on being relieved of his duties as Assistant Settlement Officer, Sib-sagar, is transferred to Jorhat.

Mouli Subodh Chandra Ray is appointed to be an Assistant Superintendent of Survey in the districts of Backergunge and Faridpur. He is also appointed to be an Assistant Settlement Officer in the districts of Backergunge and Faridpur. Mr. S. N. Mackenzie, I.C.S., Assistant Magistrate and Collector, is appointed to have charge of the Narainjan sub-division of the Dacca district.

Mr. H. K. Briscoe, I.C.S., Assistant Magistrate and Collector, is appointed to have charge of the Madaripur sub-division of the Faridpur district. Mouli Abdul Mozuffar Ahmed, Deputy Magistrate and Deputy Collector, Dacca, is transferred to the Madaripur sub-division of the Faridpur district.

Mouli Abdul Mozuffar Ahmed, Deputy Magistrate, is appointed to be a Magistrate of the 1st class. Babu Promotho Nath Chatterjee, Munsif, is appointed to act as Subordinate Judge, Chittagong.

The gentlemen named below are re-appointed to be Honorary Magistrates of the Independent Bench at Netrokona in the district of Mymensingh.—Babus Sachindra Kumar Ghosh and Harendra Nath Mazumdar.

SUBORDINATE CIVIL SERVICE. The following transfers of Deputy Inspectors of Schools are ordered in supersession of the Assam Administration Notifications Nos. 6279G and 6280G dated the 2nd August 1905.—Babu Ambica Charan Das from Karimganj to Hailakandi; Munsif Nandan Das from Sasi

THE DOVETON COLLEGE IMBROGLIO.

ALL ABOUT TRANSFER CERTIFICATES.

ALLEGED ASSAULT.

COMPLAINT DISMISSED.

On Wednesday before Mr. D. H. Kingsford, Chief Presidency Magistrate Babu Kessub Chander Gupta made an important application on behalf of a youth named Babu Jibendra Lal Chatterjee, a student of the 3rd year class, Doveton College, against the Revd. Mr. W. K. Duthie, Principal, Doveton College, under the following alleged circumstances as detailed in the petition which runs thus— (1) That your petitioner is a student of the 3rd year (B. A.) class, in the Doveton College and he belongs to a very respectable Bengalee family.

The court after examining the applicant enquired of him 'How did he assault you?' Applicant:—He threw me down and tore my shirt. Court:—What was the language used by the defendant? Applicant:—He said 'are you a Babu?' I said 'you can see.' He said 'oh! I did not expect anything better from you.'

The court then left the witness-box and went away. THE COMING OF THE AERIAL TORPEDOES.

EXPERIMENTS AT NEW YORK. Experiments have recently been made at Long Island, New York, with a novel rocket which is not fired from a gun, but from a tripod, and resembles a rocket in its chief features. The term 'aerial torpedo' has been often employed as descriptive of a large projectile containing a charge of wet gun-cotton or other high explosive, and numerous patents relating to such a weapon have been taken out by Maxim and other inventors.

Indian Sketches BY SHISHIR KUMAR GHOSE. THE LATE W. S. CAINE M.P. MEMORIAL. Mr. Caine says:—I heartily commend to every cultured and earnest man, the contents of his deeply interesting volume of miscellaneous articles from the pen of SHISHIR KUMAR GHOSE, whose metaphysical acumen, versatile talents, patriotism, noble character and earnest piety, have endeared him to all Bengal.

Scientific Notes.

Artificial camphor under the chemical designation of chlorhydrate of turpentine has been made in Germany by Herr Calenberg. It is soluble in nitroglycerine, and is found to lower the explosion temperature of this explosive, as well as its freezing point.

Some interesting experiments bearing on the subject of the development of spines in plants have been carried on by Dr. L. Cockayne. The plant experimented on is a New Zealand shrub, popularly known as Wild Irishman, which is abundantly furnished with long, sharp spines.

The gum which exudes from the fruit of Macrozamia, an Australian plant, has been found by Mr. Greig Smith to be of bacterial origin. In the first place, a thin slice of the gum examined under the microscope was found to contain a short rod-shaped bacillus.

Type-writing by telegraph was the subject of an important paper read by Mr. D. Murray at the session of the Institute of Electrical Engineers. The message to be transmitted and type-written at the receiving station is first punched on a paper strip or 'tape'.

In the 'Comptes Rendus' M. Charles Deperret contends that biologists have been too hasty in making animal pedigrees. Various lines of descent have been traced, based on the progressive adaptation of a particular part, such as a limb, tooth, or bone.

Messrs. Revell and Price have invented an ingenious arrangement for preventing skidding in motors. The apparatus is of simple construction, and is to be attached to the rear axle of the car.

MM. Henry and Bastien have been investigating the cause of senility in man, and have set forth their views in the 'Comptes Rendus'. It is due, they contend, to dehydration of the tissues, and consequent mineralisation.

By the end of October the presence of plague was reported in twenty out of the forty-nine districts of the United Provinces. As usual the disease is found returning to the localities where it has been most prevalent in previous years.

A HANDSOME WOMAN IN COURT.

ALLEGED KIDNAPING AND THEFT. On Wednesday, before Mr. D. H. Kingsford, Chief Presidency Magistrate, in pursuance of the order of the Magistrate, the police produced a young widow named Panchoo Bala said to be 15 years old as a complainant had been made by her father-in-law, Babu Annoda Prosad Ray Chowdry, against three young men named Kala Chand, Bhattacharjee, Binola and another, on a charge of kidnaping against the youths and theft of ornaments against the woman.

His Worship examined the girl. Court:—Where did you live? Girl:—I lived in the house of a 'barwalli' in Goa Bagan. Court:—Who took you there? Girl:—I went there alone. Court:—Do you know Kala Chand? Girl:—No. Court:—Who supplies you with food? Girl:—I have ornaments. I pledged my 'balas'.

Babu Khierode Lall Sen, Vakil, who appeared for the father-in-law informed the court that the ornaments belonged to her father-in-law.

There is one projected railway in the United Provinces that has been shelved for six years, and unless Cawnpore presses for its construction, it is not likely to be undertaken for a long time to come.

Professor von Behring's first scientific discovery of an anti-toxin for diphtheria dates back some years, and his latest announcement of a discovery of a prophylactic for the bacillus of tuberculosis has caused and is still causing widespread discussion and comment.

Mr. Edward Brider, coachbuilder for Messrs. Hammer & Thibent, Naaunpoort, C.C., writes on November 30th last:—'I had indigestion in a rather severe form. After meals a dizziness quite overcame me and I threw up the food I had eaten. There was constant dull pain in my stomach, and back and I could not sleep at nights. Life seemed not worth living.

You read here the experience of a man who has suffered long in simple fashion! If you have the first symptoms of stomach trouble you should at once try Mother Seigel's Syrup—it is better to prevent misery than to cure it. Mother Seigel's Syrup does both!

THE ROYAL VISIT.

CALCUTTA PROGRAMME.

December 1905. Friday, 29th, 4 p.m. Public Arrival at Princeps Ghat. Municipal Address and presentation of Jewel at Princeps Ghat. State Procession from Princeps Ghat to Government House. Evening Small Dinner. Leave. Saturday, 30th, Afternoon Races. Dinner with Lieutenant-Governor at Belvedere. Sunday, 31st, 10-30 a.m. Attend Cathedral Service. Proceed by river to Barrackpur. Return from Barrackpur. January 1906. Monday, 1st Morning Proclamation Parade. Afternoon—Prince of Wales attends University Convocation. Princess of Wales attends Purdah Party at Belvedere. Evening State Banquet at Government House. Tuesday, 2nd, Public Reception on the Maidan. Reception at Government House. Wednesday, 3rd, Garden Party at Government House. Evening After Dinner drive through City to see illuminations. Thursday, 4th Possible shoot. Dinner at Government House. State Ball. Friday, 5th, Afternoon The laying of the foundation-stone of the Victoria Memorial Hall. Evening Dinner with the Commander-in-Chief. Saturday, 6th 4 p.m. Leave Calcutta for Darjeeling.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1905.

Explanatory.—By far the most important bhadoi food crop of the province is Autumn paddy. It covers nearly 60 per cent. of the total area under bhadoi crops. In Bihar and Chota Nagpur the most important bhadoi crop is maize, a good deal of mardia and Jawar being also grown; but all these are practically unknown in Central and East Bengal or in Orissa. The most important non-food crop is jute which again is practically unknown in Bihar and Chota Nagpur; but jute is not dealt with in this forecast, as a separate forecast is devoted to it.

The area under bhadoi food crops this year is 11,553,200 acres against 11,810,500 acres of last year. Outturn.—Only three districts, viz. Jalpaiguri, Purnea and Balasore, return a normal crop, while Darjeeling alone shows above the normal. Rajshahi and Malda report respectively 95 and 93 per cent. Fourteen districts report between 80 to 89 per cent; sixteen between 70 to 79; four between 62 to 69; while six districts, viz. Backergunge, Monghyr, Muzaffarpur, Saran, Howrah and Darbhanga, show 50 per cent and under. The total outturn of the 'bhadoi' crops as estimated by the District Officers comes to only 74 per cent.

Kolangarath Velu Nairy, amahom poon of Kotal Amshom, Calicut, was fatally mauled by a tiger on Monday last.

INDIGESTION, DIZZINESS, VOMITING, DRIVEN AWAY THREE YEARS AGO BY MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP. Mr. Edward Brider, coachbuilder for Messrs. Hammer & Thibent, Naaunpoort, C.C., writes on November 30th last:—'I had indigestion in a rather severe form. After meals a dizziness quite overcame me and I threw up the food I had eaten. There was constant dull pain in my stomach, and back and I could not sleep at nights. Life seemed not worth living. This state of health continued until I went to live in Middleburg, where I read of Mother Seigel's Syrup, and heard several persons, who had used it, speak in praise of it. I decided to try it and was quite cured by using only three bottles of it. That was some three years ago, and I continue in good health.'

THE CHARGE AGAINST A FINGER PRINT EXPERT.

The further hearing of the case against the finger impression expert... The expert says that the thumb-mark on the note in suit is a simple 'wharf'...

and those on the said 'rubkar' does not appear to me clear. The expert says that the thumb-mark on the note in suit is a simple 'wharf'...

His experience of stag-hunting in France has not been equally happy, for its story contains one incident that might easily have been a tragedy. During his visit in 1863, with the Princess of Wales, to the Court of Napoleon III...

owing to the slope of the Bridge, rolled back for a distance of about two miles and came to a dead halt when the wagons reached the level on the lines, Guard Maling who was in the brake van being it is said utterly in the dark as to what had happened to his train...

AN APPEAL FOR NATIONAL UNIVERSITY.

Bombay, Nov. 8. Yesterday a meeting was held at Khem Raja Shet's Veikateswar Press under the presidency of Sriman Devkinand Auharyaji. Mr. Bodas explained the object of the meeting...

Gonorrhoea Drops

DISCOVERED by an eminent American physician and recognized by the latest edition of the American Pharmacopoeia as the only safe and miraculous remedy for GONORRHOEA AND GLEET...

THE COLLISION IN THE E. B. S. RAILWAY.

The Railway authorities have concluded their enquiry into the circumstances attending the serious collision which occurred early on the morning of the 31st ultimo between the Bogoola Station and the Ichamutty Bridge...

HERILLING MOMENTS IN THE KING'S LIFE.

There are probably few sportsmen now in Scotland who are able, like King Edward, to look back on half a century of deer-stalking, or who have achieved such a splendid record in that difficult branch of sport...

HIS MAJESTY AS STAG-HUNTER AND TIGER-SLAYER.

There are probably few sportsmen now in Scotland who are able, like King Edward, to look back on half a century of deer-stalking, or who have achieved such a splendid record in that difficult branch of sport...

FXTHAORDINARY SUCCESS. WARRANTED pure and free from injurious ingredients, NIZAM'S G. & G. CURE

Those who are suffering from Gonorrhoea and Gleet are requested to try a Phial of the Yuni Medicine. Instant relief guaranteed by use of a dose, and medical cure guaranteed by two weeks' use...

OPINION OF THE PRESS

The London Overland Mail makes the following remarks on the 'SNAKE-BITES AND THEIR TREATMENT'...

C. RINGER & CO.

Homeopathic establishment, 4, DALHOUSE SQUARE EAST, CALCUTTA. WE GUARANTEE TO SUCCED.

ANKURA

A first class Bengali monthly journal of Indian History, Literature, Romance, Art, Religion and Science etc. Edited by renowned Pundit Kalibor Vedanta Bagis.

SUDHACHURNA

either acute or chronic. One dose will give immediate relief...

THE AMRITA BAZAR PATRIKA

THE AMRITA BAZAR PATRIKA. Rates of Subscriptions (In Advance) DAILY EDITION. Yearly Rs. 20 0 0, Half-Yearly Rs. 12 0 0, Quarterly Rs. 6 0 0.

THE AMRITA BAZAR PATRIKA

THE AMRITA BAZAR PATRIKA. Rates of Subscriptions (In Advance) WEEKLY EDITION. Yearly Rs. 5 0 0, Half-Yearly Rs. 3 0 0, Quarterly Rs. 1 5 0.

